Deny Petition Asking Revamping Of District 26 - 57 Boundaries

In one of the first hearings on school district boundaries held Tuesday by the newly created country school trustees, the board ruled unanimously against the disconnection of a portion of district 57, Mount Prospect.

The petition before them sought to withdraw that portion of the territory detached from district 26 and annexed to 57 in June, which lies east of Rand rd. and includes the Public Service property. Its assessed valuation is $716,-361, and there are four school age children living in the area. The portion of the June annexation lying west of Rand rd. is valued at $329,364 and includes more than 100 homes. Thirty-six children from this area have already registered at the Mt. Prospect schools.

DISTRICT 57 board of education fought the petition on the basis that adding the children from these homes to the Mt. Prospect schools without sufficient assessed valuation to cover educational costs would be putting an undue burden on the other taxpayers of the district.

Proponents of the petition held that without this assessed valuation, district 26 would not be able to build the much needed addition to Feehanville school. They branded the petition which brought a quarter of the Public Service installation into district 57 in June along with the 110 homes as "legal larceny," and accused district 57 officials of making a "land grab."

There are 165 children living within the present boundaries of district 26, they stated, of which 75 attend parochial schools but may be forced to attend public school due to overcrowding.

IT WAS pointed out district 26 has a total tax rate for grade school of $.516. The remaining assessed valuation gives them approximately $160,000 bonding power, and they can increase their levy for building purposes which would permit them to proceed with their expansion plans.

The county board reviewed maps and charts prepared by district 57 board of education showing the effect of changes in boundaries on both school districts, and listened to evidence presented by both sides in the hearing which lasted over an hour. After taking the matter under advisement, they later issued their decision denying the petition.

Serious Polio Cases Escape Arlington

Only one light case of polio that did not require hospitalization has been reported in Arlington Heights. This may be due to the preventive measures that are being taken by parents. However, there have been three cases in Mt. Prospect, two of whom recovered sufficiently to return home.

Patrick Phelan, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Phelan, Wheeling, was stricken with polio August 1 and taken to Evanston hospital. He is paralyzed in the back and right arm and feet but is progressing nicely.

Palatine village has also escaped, although Lake county reported the death Saturday at the Great Lakes Naval hospital of Charlene Hakala, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hakala, whose address is in the Palatine rural area.

Two brothers who reside in Itasca, 14 and 15 years old, died at the Hinsdale Sanitarium this week for whom a double funeral was held Monday at the Geils Funeral Home, Bensenville. The boys were Ralph and Robert, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Hoffman.

Thomas Lange, 44, of Bensenville, died at the same sanitarium Sunday after five days' illness. His funeral was held Wednesday.

MT. PROSPECT cases were Cleve and Scott, children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Welch, and James, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Millar. James returned home Sunday. Cleve came back Monday and it is expected that his brother, Scott, will be able to leave the hospital within a few days.

Dr. Hall, of the Cook county department of public health told Paddock Publications Wednesday that preventive measures mentioned in last week's edition of Paddock Publications should be followed by all mothers. He added, "One hour is long enough for any child to remain in a pool."

The year's polio death toll has risen to 23 in a total of 451 cases reported in Cook county, according to county department of public health figures released this week.

DURING AUGUST to date, 284 cases have been reported and 16 of them were fatal.

In the county outside Chicago, there have been 115 cases this year, 65 in August. All four deaths for the year occurred in August.

Hardest hit of the cities and towns around Chicago was Evanston with ten cases, although none were fatal.

Polio cases reported in this area include Skokie, four; Glenview, Des Plaines and Mount Prospect, three; Park Ridge, Winnetka and Barrington, two, and Wheeling, Northbrook, Norridge and Glencoe, one.

County Police Round Up Burglary Gang

Cook County Sheriff's highway police have solved many burglaries in Cook, DuPage, Lake and Kane counties as the result of the testimony of 16-year old James Behning of route 12 and State rd.

Behning was brought into custody for burglarizing the W. T. Weichbrod home on Rohlwing rd. August 5.

Behning implicated four others in numerous burglaries during the last two years. They are Theodore Weber, 28, brother-in-law of Behning, of the same address, Charles Behning, an uncle of James, Lester Palmer, 35, of 5649 N. Melvina ave., and Donald Behning, son of Charles. Four other persons have been brought into custody on charges of receiving stolen property.

The loot, part of which was stored in a summer home at Williams Bay, Wis., included 18 television sets, 11 of which were still at the Milwaukee ave. station Monday, five sewing machines, power tools, a rug, an outboard motor, jewelry and silverware. The value of the stolen goods is estimated at $50,000.

Donald Behning and Theodore Weber are also charged with arson. This story appears elsewhere on this page.

James Behning has been turned over to the juvenile authorities.

Behning, Palmer and Weber were given a preliminary hearing Wednesday and were bound over to the grand jury.

Capt. Hugo Olsen who is in charge of the Morton Grove station during the vacation of Capt. Johnson is still catalogueing recovered goods, checking them with list of stolen articles taken from homes in Lake, DuPage and Cook counties.

Additional articles taken from the Noble J. Puffer home, Palatine, hae been found. A partial list of recovered goods taken from other homes in the area served by Paddock Publications are:

Roy E. Quinlan, Rt. 1, Des Plaines — Delta saw, ½" Skilsaw, $300.

Burning Motor Brings Out Arlington Firemen

A motor in the Frank Gieseke home, 5 E. Hawthorne, Arlington Heights, caught fire Monday morning. Mrs. Gieseke awoke to find the house filled with smoke and called the fire department, which traced the source of the smoke to the motor. No serious damage resulted.

Consider Use Of Park Area For New Street

The committee of Arlington Heights business men appointed last week to study the parking situation in Arlington Heights have discovered that it has a real job.

"It is a job that must be done," says Chairman Dan Senne, "and we are not going to shirk that responsibility."

THE NORTH WESTERN railway is being contacted this week to learn its attitude relative to the widening of Davis street.

The reaction to last week's news story has been favorable and additional parking areas before Christmas trading season is still possible.

Mr. Manke, real estate man, has reported that since the publication last week, that business men are working on adequate parking in the present business area, he has received several inquiries from persons who say they are interested in acquiring leases or are interested in new store buildings.

THE COMMITTEE will not act without thought of the future. They are working on a plan that in part will be in keeping with the Stanton & Rockwell report which calls for parking areas.

Nelson Hauff, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is doing a lot of the "leg work."

Charged $100 For Destruction Of Restaurant

Twenty-two year old Michael Tomasian used to be in the restaurant business with father on the far northwest side. But Tomasian—who lives at 5112 W. Grand ave.—wasn't making any money at his lunchroom at 6205 N. Elston ave.

A few days after Labor Day last year Tomasian complained of the slow business and long hours to a customer. He told the customer—28-year old Theodore Weber of Palatine—that he was thinking of selling the place. Weber receives his mail from Palatine but resides immediately north of Arlington Hts.

Weber asked him, "Why don't you get out in a way that'll bring you some money . . ." Weber explained by offering to set fire to the lunchroom, thereby enabling Tomasian to collect on his fire insurance. Tomasian agreed to the plot and gave Weber 100 dollars for the arson.

WEBER BURNED the restaurant down but he had to set fire to the place twice. The fire department put out the first fire on the night of September 24, 1951. But the second time, Weber made sure the restaurant would really burn. A few hours later he doused the place with gasoline and lit a match.

A few months later Tomasian collected almost one thousand dollars from his insurance company.

The arson remained unsolved until this week when Weber was arrested by county highway police as a member of a burglary gang. He told of the Arson. And today police picked up Tomasian.

Capt. Jack Johnson of the Milwaukee ave. Sheriff's Police says Tomasian admits hiring Weber to burn down the restaurant.

Weber and Tomasian are now sitting in jail.

North Cook 4-H Fair Termed Most Successful in History

The sixth annual 4-H fair at the Arlington Park race track was the most successful in its history. Nearly 12,000 attended the Sunday program, and a total of 21,000 during the three days.

Miss Judy Ahmer of the Sewing Susies club, Arlington Heights, and Melvin Meyer of the Wheeling Doers, also of Arlington Heights, were crowned queen and king of 4-H Club work in North Cook county for the year of 1952-1953.

The 4-H fair this year was packed with many interesting features. There was a very good display of livestock, poultry, rabbits and vegetables. Although the swine show was cancelled due to the embargo placed on hogs and pigs.

There was an increased number of home economics booths portraying many themes of 4-H club work. An added attraction was an exhibit of canned fruit and fresh vegetables.

THE COMMERCIAL exhibits, numbering over fifty, covered almost everything for the home and the farm. They added a lot to the show and exhibitors say they secured many customer contacts. They are so pleased with the results that fourteen have made booth reservations for next year's show.

The evening programs were all well attended and proved very entertaining.

An added feature this year was the horse show and Northwest Mounted Black Horse Troop under the direction of Major Sunde. This troop presented a most outstanding performance Sunday afternoon.

Many in attendance witnessed a horse show for the first time that afternoon.

The fair association members are L. W. Pohlman, president; Wm. Linneman, vice-president; Stephen Csanadi, secretary; A. H. Franzen, treasurer; Henry Eichholz, Emil Bartels, Walter Hanson and Nelson Hauff, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Martin Meyer was superintendent of the livestock show.

The agricultural 4-H Club program in the county is conducted by farm adviser Carl F. Mees and assistant adviser W. E. Schmidt. The home economics program is under the supervision of Claradehl Upham, home adviser, and Jessie Coulter, assistant home adviser.

The increasing interest being shown in the fair each year encourages the officers to enlarge plans for succeeding events. Their goal is to make the North Cook county show the outstanding 4-H Club fair in the state of Illinois.

The Fair association expresses its thanks to all those that helped make this 4-H Fair such an outstanding event for this area. They also convey special thanks to the Arlington Park Jockey club for making these facilities available, to Paddock Publications and the press generally for the fine publicity given the show.

Chicago Man Killed by Hit-Run Driver

Otis E. Simmons, 38, of 3125 N. Racine, Chicago, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Francis hospital as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident Tuesday afternoon on Edens hwy.

Simmons was travelling north on Edens when an unknown Studebaker cut him off. Simmons apparently lost control of the car and was thrown from the car when it turned over.

TWO PERSONS were injured when the automobile driven by Jack McKinley, 17, 1804 Prairie ave., Glenview, collided with the car driven by Albert Kun, 48, of Arlington Heights. Kun and Dave Dettman, 15, of Glenview, were injured.

Kun said he was going west on rte. 68 Saturday evening and was going to turn left on Buffalo Grove rd., when McKinley hit him in the rear pushing his car into a fence.

McKinley told county highway police he had stolen the car earlier in the evening from Ehrhardt's Grove and was going west on 68 at a fast rate of speed when the collision occurred.

Four persons were injured in a three car collision on Golf rd., one block east of River rd. Sunday at 4 p. m. Drivers of the cars were Carolyn H. Ball, 20, of Des Plaines, Nick Becharas, 34, of Evanston, and Virginia Ingram, 45, of Evanston. Injured were Carolyn Ball, Nicolette Becharas, 3½, Caroline Becharas, 27, and Nick Becharas, 34.

EUGENIA MOLHER, 50, of 1723 N. Menario ave., Chicago, was injured as she was crossing River rd. Saturday evening. Clarence W. Roberg, 50, 6252 Barry ave., Chicago, driver of the car that hit Mrs. Molher, said he was going south on River rd. when he saw a pedestrian crossing the highway going from east to west. He told county police she continued to walk in front of traffic and walked directly into his vehicle. Mrs. Molher was unable to give a coherent account of the accident.

The automobiles driven by Dennis L. Meehan, 21, 110 S. Haddow ave., Arlington Heights, and Dick Rogers, 17, Chicago, collided at rte. 12 and Palatine rd. Saturday morning. It was discovered that the lights at the intersection were out of order and were stuck in a red position for Palatine rd. and green, for Rand rd. during the time of the accident. Meehan was going east on Palatine rd. and Rogers was going northwest on Rand rd. James Osburn of Chicago sustained minor injuries.

A Pepsi-Cola truck rounded the curb at the intersection of State and Central rds. Monday evening and lost half of its load of Pepsi Cola. No one was hurt, but several hundred bottles and cases were smashed.

Thirteen other week end accidents resulted in property damage only.

One Week More To Pay Taxes

There is just one week more for property owners to make payment of the second installment of the 1951 real estate tax before the deadline.

Local township collectors' offices will be open until Saturday, August 30, which is positively the last day for these payments, as the penalty goes on September first and all bills not paid to the local collectors by the 30th will have to be paid at the county office in Chicago.

Local collectors report a pick up in collections over the week end, but hosts of bills are still unpaid.

All property owners who have not yet paid their second installments are urged to visit their collectors at once.

Vote Registration in Local Offices Will Close Sept. 15

The County Board has set Tuesday, October 7 as registration day in Cook county.

On the recommendation of County Clerk Richard Daley, the precinct and district regular polling places will be opened on that date in the cities, villages and townships for registration of voters for the last time before the general elections on November 4.

Voters now can register in the offices of the clerks of cities, villages and towns, and in the office of the county clerk in the county building.

Monday, September 15, the offices of the village, city and town clerks will be closed for registrations until after the election. Monday, October 6, will be the last day to register in the county clerk's office or with the board of election commissioners.

Wheeling Women Lay Plans to Get Out Big Vote in November

At a recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Quentin K. Ford, Arlington Heights, board members, officers, and chairmen of the Women's Regular Republican club of Wheeling township, despite a feeling of sadness caused by the defeat of Sen. Taft at the convention, vowed to continue and renew efforts for a Republican victory this fall.

"Primarily, efforts will be directed toward getting every eligible voter registered and to the polls," says Isabel Koenig. "It is felt that that would be the greatest contribution the women could make."

IN ORDER to do that, the club is asking for 100 volunteers for house to house canvassing between September 2 and September 15. That will be approximately six women to a precinct. Wheeling has 19 precincts. Mrs. Koenig assures interested women that no one person will be required to give more than a few hours of her time.

Women desiring to volunteer for this work can contact Martha Hieber, Clearbrook 3-5332; Agnes Ford, Clearbrook 3-3230, or Isabel Koenig, Clearbrook 3-2251.

Registration closes in the offices of village and town clerks September 15.

Mrs. Joseph R. Farrington, president of the National Federation of Women's Republican clubs in a recent statement said: "Women are the hope of the future in politics. When working actively, they are doing something about the high cost of living; about job security; about communistic and corrupt influences; about high taxes; and about better services in their own neighborhoods. They are helping to get into office and to keep in office better men and women who make better government and are helping get the bad ones out."

All Freshmen to Attend Special Session September 2

Freshmen will report to the Arlington Heights high school auditorium at 8:10 a. m. Tuesday, September 2, where they will be welcomed by LeRoy J. Knoeppel, superintendent, and by Garwood Leckband, president of the student council.

Freshmen will receive instructions for the day from H. L. Slichenmyer, administrative assistant, which will be in the nature of orientation and guidance. At 8:40 a. m., students will receive their home room assignment cards and at 8:45 a. m., will go to their newly assigned home rooms indicated on their schedule cards.

FOR THE next hour, they will be instructed by their home room teachers concerning the various cards, records and reports they must make. From 9:50 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., students will go through their daily schedule. At 11:30 a. m., lunch will be served in the high school cafeteria (students may purchase a 25c or 35c lunch). They may, if they care to, bring their own lunches. Milk and ice cream will also be sold.

At 12:10 p. m., students will reassemble in the auditorium to be briefed by upper classmen on the various phases of high school, its activities and opportunities. At 1 p. m., they will reassemble in their respective home rooms, to go through their regular classes a second time.

An elaborate program has been worked out for freshmen orientation day. It is hoped this will enable freshmen to find their way the next day when sophomores, juniors and seniors will also begin classes.

FRESHMEN ARE requested to bring their medical examination records and activity fee which is $8 and includes the following items: rental of tex.books (workbooks not included), insurance, subscription to the high school paper, and towel fee, September 2. Other students must bring their fees September 3. All new students to the system are required to bring a medical examination card.

There is no additional charge to athletic contests and school assemblies. Plays are charged for if the student elects to attend any or all of the dramatic productions.

If a student wishes to purchase "The Heights," the school yearbook, an additional charge of $4 will be made, thus bringing the total to $12. It is suggested that students purchase "The Heights" at this time, bringing $12 in payment of all of their fees. A receipt will be issued so each student may know what he is paying for.

In addition to these fees, it is recommended that each student purchase two combination padlocks. These locks are sold by the school at no profit at $1.10 each. There is a limited supply of used locks, however, that will be sold at 50c each. Students may use these locks for their four years of high school and sell them back to the school at 35c if they care to do so. A limited number of built-in locks will be available at a rental fee of 25c per year.

STUDENTS MAY furnish their own locks or use key padlocks if so desired. If students use or supply their own combination locks, the school requires them to register the combination with the attendance secretary.

Buses will run Tuesday, September 2; consequently sophomores, juniors and seniors may know at what time the buses will be at their stations Wednesday, September 3. A bus schedule of routes appears elsewhere in this issue of this paper.

Sophomore, junior and senior students attending this high school for the first time are invited to be present Tuesday, September 2, to meet their teachers and become acquainted with the building. Students who have attended this high school before will report September 3, to their last year's home room.

75 Trailer Camp Pupils Delay School Dist. 56 Building Program

School District No. 56, known as the Forestview school, south of Arlington Heights, has more than its share of problems. After the approval of a bond issue providing for a two room school building, the school board learned that the district is responsible for the education of about 75 children who reside in the trailer camp at Arlington airport. In addition, a second trailer camp within the district, is under construction.

Building plans have been held up because the district is faced with the need of a possible four room school.

Arlington Heights school system has consented to handle the children the coming year at a price that will be mutually agreed upon as being no greater than the district can afford to pay.

In the meantime a special election has been called for Sept. 13, which will give the voters an opportunity to authorize an increase in both the building and educational tax rate.

Arlington Heights board of education is lending the Forestview district every possible help in its effort to secure recognition by government agencies that will entitle it to special financial aid, based on the fact that the trailer camp property is owned by the government and pays no real estate tax. A reply from the government is expected this week.

The board of directors have engaged Mrs. Hinneberg and Mrs. Finch, both of Arlington Heights, to handle the entire eighth grade the coming year. There will be no half day sessions.

Man Injured When Auto Skids into Back End Of Stopped Truck

Charles Meyer of Bronx, N. Y., was injured Wednesday morning when his auto skidded on the wet pavement on Northwest hwy., at Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, and hit a truck, driven by Harold Ballard, Bensenville, stopped for a red light. Both vehicles were headed west on the highway.

Meyer was taken to Dr. E. A. Elfeld where he was treated for cuts on the bridge of his nose and over his eye.

The front end of the car and the rear of the truck were both badly damaged.

Adeline Schneider Kills Rattlesnake with Hoe

A rattlesnake with six rattlers was killed last Friday by Miss Adeline Schneider, Wheeling's village clerk.

While eating her lunch at noon in her home on Milwaukee ave., she saw the snake starting to cross Milwaukee ave. in front of her home. It apparently had crossed her lawn to get to the point where she had noticed it. She immediately went to get a hoe to kill it. In the meantime, it had been run over by a car but still showed considerable life when she came upon it armed with her hoe and hacked it in two.

"It was difficult," she said, "to determine just how long it was, because it was cut in two, but it was large enough for me to see from inside my house."

Praise Dollar Days

Readers of Paddock Publications are price conscious. That fact was proven Monday and Tuesday, dollar days advertised in last week's issue.

Every merchant participating who used prices to attract customers report a whale of a business, exceeding every dollar days ever held in Arlington Heights.

600 Petitioners Favor Adoption Of City-Wide Mosquito Spraying

Mosquitoes were again "on the carpet" in Arlington Hts. Monday night when a group of interested citizens gathered at the village hall prior to the regular village board meeting to discuss an over-all mosquito abatement program for the coming year.

Several members of the board were present to hear facts presented by the group, which included nearly 600 cards signed by residents of the village, all but three of whom were in favor of a village wide abatement program. The poll was taken in a spot canvass of all sections of the village. Cards were also signed in front of a local chain store last Saturday.

THE CARDS also contained many remarks regarding the two sprayings done this year, and suggestions to improve the program. A representative of Clarke Outdoor Spraying, which did the fogging in Heights this year, was present to give pertinent facts regarding the process.

Mosquitoes are killed only when they come in direct contact with the fog during the spraying. No settling is left on bushes, trees or grass to kill mosquitoes later. The mosquitoes are not bred in the village, but migrate here from outlaying swamps and fields, and therefore there is no opportunity for "super" mosquitoes to be bred. The eggs are laid before the migration, and no mosquito returns to the breeding place after it once leaves.

The representative said that approximately five per cent of the mosquitoes have a natural immunity to the spray solution, and thus a few might escape being killed during a fogging. The spraying company estimates when the migration of the mosquitoes is at its peak, coming into the village with its fogging equipment at that time. Occasionally it is not timed right, which results in a few mosquitoes still around the day after a spraying.

FOGGING IS done at night because the ground and shrubs are cooler and keep the fog lower to the ground, where most mosquitoes are found. The solution is so light that it does not harm insects the birds use to feed upon. Mosquitoes and flies are the most susceptible to the solution.

If a village wide program were adopted for the coming year it would cost each family in Arlington Heights, approximately 16 cents per spraying. It is estimated that the village would have to be sprayed about six times during the season.

The board will take the matter under advisement.

1011 N. Princeton ave.

The ranch home at 1011 N. Princeton ave. was just what the Marshall Grays wanted. Former residents of Chicago, they had been looking for a home in the suburbs for two years. They moved in April 15.

Their daughter, Marsha, who is 6½ years old, will be in the first grade at the North school this fall. Their son, Warren, is 1½ years old.

Mr. Gray, whose hobby is photography, is an employee of the Telephone Co. in Chicago. Sewing and gardening are Mrs. Gray's hobbies.

QUICK THOUGHT

Every minute in the United States two houses are completed, seven babies are born and 10 automobiles are produced.

Life expectancy of a modern house is about 100 years. Life expectancy of a person is 66.7 years. Life average of the motor car is 8.4 years.

Men should be judged . . . by the quality of thought they think.

30-inch Gas Pipe Line To Cross Elk Grove And Schaumburg Twps.

The county board has approved a temporary highway construction permit to the Chicago District Pipeline Co. to give it the go-ahead on laying of the 30-inch Howard st. gas pipeline through Elk Grove and Schaumburg townships.

The eastern end of the line starts just west of Elmhurst rd. in Elk Grove and runs westward into Hanover twp. where it will connect with the 20-inch Texas-Illinois pipeline. The new line will roughly parallel Touhy ave. and, farther west, Wise rd.

Specifically, the permit allows the company to "install, operate and maintain a 30-inch welded steel pipeline to transmit natural gas" under and across county highways.

The pipe will be encased in a 36-inch casing under highways. It will cross some roads without breaking the surface—that is, by boring underneath to cross the road. Others will be broken through by a 42-inch open cut trench. All paving will be replaced within 10 days, according to the contract, and through traffic will be maintained during the pipe laying operations.

New faces on the faculty at Arlington Heights high school are, left to right, Richard Mudge, biology and will coach wrestling and assist with football; Mrs. Irmgard Graham, librarian; Eugene Oliver, common learnings III, and Kenneth Schaller, social studies.

High School Faculty Workshop Begins Monday

Research in basic problems of education will be the chief feature of the annual fall workshop of the faculty of the Arlington Heights township high school, which begins next Monday with an orientation session for new teachers.

At the first meeting of all faculty members Tuesday morning, Dr. Augusta Jameson, director, associated consultants in education, will discuss the topic "Human Relations in the Classroom."

After a period of open discussion of Dr. Jameson's topic, teachers will assemble in small groups to study the problem which they have selected. Periods for general discussion and for discussion of administrative problems will be interspersed throughout the program. At the Friday afternoon sessions each study group will submit a summary of its findings.

Two evening social periods are planned, one for faculty members Wednesday, and the annual Board-Faculty picnic luncheon Thursday.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Not a "souvenir" in the lot was our verdict when we went to see all the lovely things Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson brought back from her recent European tour. On the other hand everything was a souvenir in the true sense of the word, in that the articles are things she will use and treasure for the rest of her life.

The Hendricksons took their car with them and sold it before returning home. With a car they were able to carry with them many more of the lovely things every traveler hopes to bring back.

A VISITOR to the Hendrickson home first sees — and admires almost with open mouth — a Norwegian festival costume, given to Mrs. Hendrickson as a gift. It is of white wool, floor length, and hand-embroidered in exquisite designs and colors. The embroidery is what makes this dress so extraordinary. With it is worn an intricately made blouse of white cotton. Those who visit the Presbyterian smorgasbord this fall will no doubt have an opportunity to see this dress, for Mrs. Hendrickson has always been active in this Scandinavian dinner, both in planning and in preparation.

Another item of clothing brought home is an attractive hand-woven all wool jacket. It is white, but with multicolor weaving around the collar and yoke. It is belted with a cord worked through at the waist and will go beautifully with American skirts.

FROM DENMARK came a complete service for 12 in Copenhagen china. The central figure on each piece of china is a flower, a different one on different plates.

A group of brass plaques Mrs. Hendrickson "picked up" from antique shop and they'll make handsome additions to the walls of her home.

Adorable figurines, principally of children, are other Danish mementoes which caught our eye. They're from the Bing-Grondahl factory and done mainly in the typical colors of gray and blue. The figurines, as many other things in European countries, are sold "for export only;" that is, natives can't buy them unless they have foreign money, so badly are dollars and lira and francs, etc., needed.

In Sweden they visited the Orrefuss crystal factory in what she says is the highlight of her trip. There she actually saw those stunning glass items being made, and no wonder, she says, they're so expensive. Everything is handmade by a craftsman who is virtually an artist. Their work ranges from heavyweight bowls and ash trays to exquisitely dainty glasses.

SWEDEN IS also famous for its steel and wood, so samples of each came home with the Hendricksons. For steel they chose the heavy and good-looking stainless table service, and for wood an inlaid table, typical of "Swedish modern" furniture. The wood is so perfectly spliced that where it is joined is absolutely smooth.

So it went everywhere these Arlingtonians visited — they brought back something typical of the country and something which they can really use. In Norway, it was ceramics; in Paris a Beauvais purse and gloves (and, of course, ladies, a hat from the Rue de la Paix — of grosgrain with straw over it and trimmed with two small birds and a veil); Swiss embroidery and watches; Belgian lace; a cashmere sweater from England; Italy's famous Borsalino hat, and Royal Delft figurines from Holland.

Naturally, many of these were purchased as gifts for friends or were things others asked the Hendricksons to buy for them.

Just as we were leaving by the "porch" door, one last thing caught our attention — a Swedish door chime. It is harp-shaped, and the "chimes" consist of tiny balls hanging from string which strike welcoming notes on slender wires as the door is open and closed.

Ballroom Instructor At Delores Eiler School of Dancing

MURIEL MILLS

The Delores Eiler School of Dancing, Arlington Heights, has selected the talented Muriel Mills, formerly an Arthur Murray instructor in Chicago, to present class and private instruction in ballroom dancing. This phase of the dance is being added to the school's already well-rounded curriculum, because of the increasing public demand for it.

Muriel Mills is well qualified to coahc youngsters (and oldsters in ballroom dancing. While with Arthur Murray, she started her own classes of junior and senior high school students. She was the instructor of the adult education ballroom classes at the Arlington Heights high school; director of the Arlington Heights youth center its first year; organized the Junior Cotillion club and has been conducting it for the past two years. Mrs. Mills will continue the club outside of her Delores Eiler dancing studio work, and invites all seventh and eighth graders for membership.

Delores Eiler plans to continue the same program this year as last, offering private and class instruction for all ages in ballet, toe, tap-acrobatic, baton twirling, character and comedy-interpretive dancing and the new ballroom classes. Mrs. Eiler places particular emphasis upon the acquisition of social poise and self confidence through the medium of dramatic expression, correlating it with her choreography.

Registration for dancing classes will be held August 28 and 29, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., at the studio, 10 W. Campbell. Phone Clearbrook 3-3500.

Warn About Danger Of Blasting Caps

Too many children get hurt in blasting cap accidents at this time of the year when boys and girls are on vacation.

"A child or adult finding a blasting cap must shun it, never touch it, tell the first policeman, sheriff, or fireman where it is," warned Arlington Heights police chief, Carl H. Skoog.

Know a cap when you see one, to avoid deadly danger. They are bright copper or aluminum tubes, about as big around as a pencil, and from an inch and a half to five inches. A cap may or may not have a fuse. Others have plain or colored wires at one end. All are charged with powerful, sensitive explosives.

Caps sometimes get lost or stolen. A child finding one is in deadly danger. Men who use them in the work can be the best protectors against caps by keeping all explosives under strong lock and key. The child their attention to safety saves may be their own boy or girl.

Street Department Gets Post Card Alibis

Ed Guenther, who is trying out his fishing ability on a wonderful lake in Canada, has been sending some post card alibis to his fellow employees in the Arlington municipal building.

The boys were looking forward to some fish dinners. He writes in part: "This is a wonderful lake for size and scenery, but its fish inhabitants have not given me much of a welcome. They tell me they have sore mouths. I did catch five Northerners about 17 inches long. I am still hoping that I can make good on that fish dinner. With or without fish, this is the life — fishing, eating and sleeping."

Lucky Man

Luckiest man in Park Ridge at the recent Legion carnival was Ed Ozarke, 2 S. Greenwood, Park Ridge. Also lucky was L. Calvert of Mt. Prospect who took home a stove.

by MRS. CHARLES KULE

Long summer days continue, and from the volume of business done at your library, adults and youngsters alike are enjoying these beautiful days on the porch or in that favorite spot in the yard with a good book. Each week new books arrive, and we would like to share several of the newcomers to our shelves with you.

"The Quiet Life of Mrs. General Lane" by Victoria Case. The life of Polly Lane was anything but quiet. It was stormy with hardship, familiar with death, but rich with living. It was quiet only against the great variety and importance of her husband's colorful career. Victoria Case has written a poignant novel against a background of the lusty, sprawling years of America's growth as a nation. Through it all she winds the thread of a love story sometimes tender, sometimes bitter, but always thrilling.

Catherine Hutter in her newest books. "This Dear Encounter," deals with the age-old theme of divorce and the responsibility involved when a marriage has failed. "This Dear Encounter" is a big novel, generous in scope and treatment and ending on a note of happiness and fulfillment. Through its crowded scenes, from the intensely glittering world of the theater to the small town where Phillip lives, runs the strong, clear story of a very moving love affair. The theme of this novel has been treated fictionally many times before, but perhaps never more seriously, nor with such sureness of its solution of the central theme.

"Rage of the Soul" by Vincent Sheean, author of "Lead, Kindly Light," and many other books, is an absorbing novel which takes place in India, in Washington and in Rome, reflecting to some extent the cosmopolitan life of the author, and particularly those months he spent in India just before, and shortly after, the assassination of Gandhi. The story is one which will inevitably raise a storm of debate because of the author's interpretation of certain Eastern religious teachings. For its controversial aspects as well as its thrilling story, "Rage of the Soul" will be widely popular, endlessly discussed.

For the "young-modern" crowd: "End of a Golden String" by Helen Girvan, the story of a young girl living in New York with her charming, eccentric aunt, who runs a fascinating antique and interior decorating shop. A career in professional photography is indicated.

For the lover of dog stories there is Jim Kjelgaard's latest book, "Big Red," the story of an Irish Setter. "Big Red" is a rugged, modern story of outdoor American life, packed with action and adventure.

"Strong Wings" by Mabel Louise Robinson is the story of three young people, marooned in a Maine village. City born and bred, they have known the coast only as a source of summer delight. Through the book, as in Bright Island, the sea and the land are brilliant with color and life.

"Speckles Goes to School" and "Tim Tomkins, Circus Boy" are two new books in the young fry group.

"Congress at Work" by Stephen K. Bailey will appeal to the more serious minded individual. Here is the dynamic inside story of our highest legislative body and how it operates.

Pile Up Snarls Traffic, Fog Causes Collision

Traffic coming into Chicago Sunday night from the northwest on Rand rd. was delayed three hours. A spectacular eight car pile up near Rand and Arlington Heights rds. caused an estimated $2,000 property damage and snarled traffic for five miles in every direction.

No one was injured, but state police reported hundreds of cases of high blood pressure. The pile up started when one motorist slowed down too fast.

Three persons were seriously injured in an accident Saturday night at routes 62 and 83. Injured were taken to St. Francis hospital.

The drivers of the two cars involved in the collision were Dolores Biese, 18, of Downers Grove, and Marguerite McMahon, 48, of 6601 W. End ave., Chicago.

Patricia Kolzow, 17, of Downers Grove and Miss Diese sustained minor injuries. Marguerite McMahon, Mary and Catherine O'Grady, both 40, 5679 W Washington ave., Chicago, were more seriously injured.

The fog Tuesday morning resulted in the collision of three cars at routes 53 and 62. Robert Eisman, 35, of 138 Plum Grove ave., Palatine, was injured. Drivers of the other cars were Robert Kirchner, 38, of Cary, and Earl Haake, 37, of Wauconda.

20-Year-Olds to be Inducted in October

Local boards of the Illinois Selective Service System must furnish 2680 men for induction into the army in October, Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, state director of selective service, announced. This represents approximately 5.7 per cent of the national quota of 47,000.

Colonel Armstrong said the call will be filled by taking all available registrants who have reached their 20th birthday by October 1952.

Four separate classes of competition have been established for the fall exhibit, including one for all Western Electric employees and immediate families, one for employees and family members who have never previously exhibited in a show, one for retired employees, and an entry grouping for the general public.

Favorites for Flavor

By LOIS SEILER

A cool and colorful luncheon suggestion is featured today. It is a summertime salad, made up of all kinds of wonderful, seasonal fruit, and is perfect for August entertaining.

First, cut a canteloupe crosswise to make melon rings. Scoop out the seeds and cut off the skin. Prepare some canteloupe balls, watermelon balls, and honeydew melon balls if desired. Add to the melon balls some green grapes, bing cherries and blueberries.

If you wish to add an interesting and unusual touch, soak the fruit for a little while in its juice which has been flavored with a little brandy.

Heap the fruit mixture into the canteloupe rings and top with a sprig of mint. A mayonnaise sauce may be served separately if desired. Accompany this inviting, decorative salad with banana tea bread and iced tea.

Banana Tea Bread

1¾ cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1/3 cup butter
2/3 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup mashed bananas (2 to 3 bananas)

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Beat butter until creamy. Add sugar gradually and continue beating until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well.

Add flour mixture alternately with bananas, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth.

Turn into a well-greased bread pan (8½x4½x3 inches) and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about 1 hour 10 minutes. Makes one loaf.

Art Group Forms Plans For Season

MRS. JOSEPH LOHR
Community Camera

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Joseph Lohr, chairman, the art study group of the Arlington Heights Woman's club has completed its plans for an interesting and varied series of programs for the coming club year.

The first meeting, scheduled in October, will be a "hobby tea." It should prove an incentive for many club members, talented or not, to join in the pleasure and satisfaction which comes from participating in creative projects.

Members will display their accomplishments in art study groups of the past — such as finger painting and oil painting, textile and china painting, and similar crafts. Mrs. Dorothy Wearing, president of the Palatine Art League, will be the guest speaker.

IN NOVEMBER Mrs. Alfred Freeman, who recently conducted a course on old china at the Winnetka Woman's club, will speak on that subject for the Arlington Heights art study group.

The December meeting will have a dual theme. There will be a china painting workshop, which proved so popular last year, and Mrs. John Kehe will give a demonstration of Christmas decorations which can be made by anyone with a little ingenuity.

The final art study group meeting of the season will be held in February. It will be a textile painting workshop conducted by Mrs. Lohr, who has established a reputation locally for her textile painting. Members of her committee are equally gifted in various arts and crafts, and all known in Arlington Heights for their artistic accomplishments. They are Mrs. H. Paul Carstens, Mrs. Lyle W. Ewihg and Mrs. John Kehe.

"These stimulating programs," said Mrs. Lohr, "designed to be instructive as well as entertaining, should encourage Woman's club members to try their hand at one or more artistic crafts which perhaps heretofore they considered beyond their capabilities."

Country Kitchen Theme Of Antique and Hobby Show September 9-11

The Country Kitchen will set the theme for the ninth annual antique and hobby show to be held at the Arlington Heights Methodist church, September 9-11.

Mrs. Donald Thompson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Burton Bauer, co-chairman, is in charge of the stage committee setting up the kitchen. Pieces of antique kitchen furnishings have been collected to make the scene authentic.

Special feature will be the Country Kitchen Cook Book, filled with tried and true recipes and home remedies, which date back to grandmother's day.

ANTIQUES AND hobbies of all descriptions will enhance the entire show. They include treasures of antique dealers, unusual family and individual hobbies, and table settings taken from grandmother's day. Choice handmade quilts will serve as a lovely background.

Tea, served in a "garden spot" at St. John's church, where the table settings and quilts will be displayed, will be available daily between 2:30 and 4 p. m.

Luncheon will be served each day from 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m., and dinner each evening between 5:30 and 7:30 p. m., in the "Calico" room at the Methodist gym.

As each year passes the show becomes larger in scope and draws workers and contributors from a wider area until all Chicagoland is aware of its social importance and splendid offerings. The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Arlington Heights Methodist church sponsors the antique and hobby show. Mrs. Robert J. Marsh is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Richard Bronwell, co-chairman.

Open Nursery School September 2

For the fifth consecutive year Mrs. James Lambdin will open the Arlington Heights Nursery school September 2 in the Presbyterian church.

Much thought has gone into the plans for this year to make the school more suitable and attractive to pre-school children according to Mrs. Lambdin. Separate groups, one a nursery school class for 3-year olds and the other a pre-kindergarten class for 4-year olds, are planned.

"Judging from present enrollment, the school is rapidly becoming a necessity to the entire community rather than to the small original group of parents who were far-sighted enough to recognize the value of the planned transition from home to formal school," said Mrs. Lambdin.

She has been careful in planning her program for both groups to progressively challenge the mind of the growing child so that each month he steps forward according to his increased capabilities.

Care has been taken to avoid encroaching on the regular kindergarten curriculum, so that the time spent in the school will be a preparation for kindergarten while at the same time entertaining the child and giving him the opportunity to associate with children his own age in a setting equipped to satisfy his interests and capacities under trained supervision.

There is still time to enroll for the coming semester. For information call Mrs. Lambdin at Cl. 3-7337.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Because man reflects God, infinite Mind, he has unlimited intelligence, capabilities and resources. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 24. The title of the Lesson-Sermon will be MIND.

The Golden Text is from Psalms (67: 3, 4) "Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding . . . Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite" (Isa. 40: 28; Ps. 147: 5).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Divine metaphysics, as revealed to spiritual understanding, shows clearly that all is Mind, and that Mind is God, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience,—that is, all power, all presence, all Science . . . The true understanding of God is spiritual" (p. 275).

Napkins Make Poor Pot Holders in Homes

Napkins should not be used to pinch hit for pot holders! The reason, according to the American institute of laundering, is that the stain caused by contact of the fabric with carbon-containing grease is practically impossible to remove. Laundering, they say, will remove a large portion of the discoloration produced by contact of a napkin with a blackened cooking pan, but a grey discoloration will remain in the fabric.

Idle Speculation

Chicago, Illinois — The giraffe, a noble beast with a neck permanently extended almost as far as a weather forecaster's, has nothing on me this week. Witness the following statement: despite pontifical accounts by astronomers, et al., purporting to prove the reported flying disks are mirages, meteors, reflections or what have you, this department hereby states publicly what I have long believed privately, namely, that the wraith-like objects are of extra-terrestrial origin and for goodness sakes, leave us be friendly and not go shooting broken down atoms at 'em.

If one of the saucers should land here the effect would be wonderful. Our tiny hunk of universe would unite like the brothers who fight among themselves but present a solid front to any outsider. Even if nothing else resulted, this alone would be the greatest boon to man since the coming of Christ. And unless the various tribes on this planet mature enough sociologically to avoid denuding the globe of the major portion of homo sapiens, a visitor from space may well be the only thing that can save us.

Grist for the guillotine, or step aside Nostradamus: Giants over the Yankees in the World Series in six games . . . first passenger car with rear-engine drive will be Oldsmobile in 1955 . . . General Hoyt Vandenberg to retire by Jan. 1, 1953 . . . Ditto Churchill who'll name Eden his successor and the Socialists will regain control of the government in the first general election thereafter . . . Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl and the first west coast victory . . . first atom-powered moon rocket to be launched in 1967 . . . De Gaulle finis in French politics . . . USA's airlines to take a beating at the hands of BOAC in 1954. The jet transport they will use on the north Atlantic runs will make all the difference.

Answers to Your Questions

how is the location determined?

There is a beautiful tradition dictating the position of a grave on a cemetery lot. The husband or wife is laid to rest on right or left just as they stood before the officiating clergyman during their wedding ceremony.

Dave Koceja's .733 and Allen Sander's .722 Top Batting Marks in Heights Park Ball

Final batting averages for both traveling and park teams in Arlington Heights were released this week by recreation director Russ Attis with David Koceja's .733 tops, followed by Allen Sander's .722. The former hit safely 33 times in 45 times within park play. Sander rapped out 13 hits in 18 chances in Midwest park competition.

As always, batting averages of .300 and up were a dime a dozen with those over .400 released each week during the season. In this final listing of averages for the Arlington Heights park district, every boy is named with averages reaching from absolute zero to just as absolute 1.000.

DAVID BRODNAN was at bat the most times in the Midwest park league, playing with the championship Heights midgets. He hit safely 19 times in 41 chances for a respectable .463 and fourth spot offensively.

Tom Klement led the midgets with nine safeties in 16 times for .563, other than George Goodman who swatted .600 but did it with three for five. Ken Niebuhr and Bob LaBojko led the junior travelers at .600, the former garnering 18 for 30, and the latter 6 for 10.

LEADING MIDGET batter in park play was Fred Lussow with 34 hits in 50 times. Second was Ken Mueller with 47 safeties in 74 times at bat.

CULLIGAN serves all your water conditioning needs

YOU CAN ENJOY CULLIGAN SOFT-WATER SERVICE

There's no equipment to buy, no work for you to do when you have Culligan Soft Water on a service basis! We install our portable water softener in your home—and we take care of it. You simply turn the tap for all the silky soft water you need. As with your telephone, you receive a small monthly bill for the service alone. That's all there is to it.

YOU CAN BUY YOUR OWN CUL-MATIC WATER SOFTENER

Unlike other companies who sell water softeners and then let the owners worry about taking proper care of them, Culligan offers a unique "Owner-Service Plan." With this Plan, you own the softener, but it is designed for interchange with our Service unit so that the Cul-matic can, on occasion, be professionally sterilized and rejuvenated at our plant. Call us for details.

Arlington High Bus Routes

Arlington Heihgts high school has recently completed arrangements with Waldo Tinsley to operate the bus transportation system for the coming year.

TINSLEY has moved to Arlington Heights and is making arrangements for this service. All drivers have been secured and the buses will be housed on the west high school parking lot and operate from the high school. Buses will bring students to the south entrance of the high school horseshoe driveway and will pick them up at 3 p. m. in the same area. They will be numbered from 1 to 11 inclusive and will be arranged in the driveway in that order for the convenience of students.

In addition to the 3 p. m. buses, five buses will leave at 4:10 p. m. and will accommodate students to the various areas of the school district. The 4:10 buses are arranged for the convenience of those students staying for club activities, extra work and the intramural program. Two buses will also leave the high school at 6:10 p. m., for boys who are out for football and other athletics. Only one bus has been operated for this purpose in past years. The addition of an extra bus will give students living in Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, Elk Grove, and other rural areas, better and faster transportation home at the end of athletic practices. It will also allow boys living in those areas a better opportunity to participate in athletics.

THE NORTHSIDE athletic special will run directly to Elmhurst rd. in Mt. Prospect, then to Hintz rd., to Milwaukee, to Dundee, to State and back to the high school, while the south side run will go via Northwest highway to 83, south on 83 as needed, then to State or west as needed and thence to the high school. Students are requested to study the bus schedule to determine what bus and at what time their transportation will affect them.

Students will be required to present bus passes to the drivers, which will be given to them free of charge the opening day of school. Any student living one and one-half miles from the high school is entitled to free transportation. Tinsley will operate 11 new 1952 Oneida school buses with Ford chassis and heavy duty Ford motors.

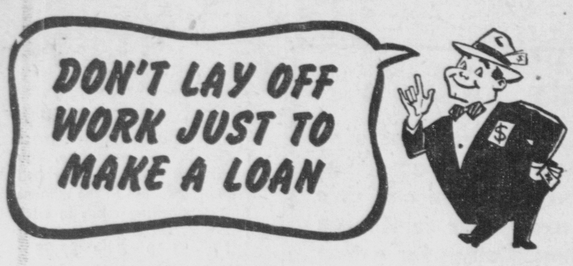
Says Little Mr. Helping Hand:



"That's unnecessary if you make a "Just Your Signature" Loan from Imperial. When you borrow on just your signature, all you need do is to get to a phone, ring up Roy Geyer at VAnderbilt 4-3151, tell him how much you want and when you'll be in to get your money. It's that simple, regardless whether you're borrowing $10 or $500 or any amount in between.

"So the next time you're needing money, just phone Imperial from where you work and pick up the money during your lunch hour or on your way home. These "Just Your Signature" Loans, by the way, are made as readily to city, state and government employees as to those working in stores, factories, offices."

Song Written, Sung by Local Artist Has Premier in Arlington Heights

The latest record appearing on juke boxes in Arlington Heights and surrounding towns is "Cross the Mason-Dixon Line" by Ty Nagle, who not only sings the song, but also wrote the music and lyrics. Ty in everyday life is Joe Tinaglia, pharmacist and co-owner of Sieburg Drug company, Arlington Heights.

This song is one of several he has composed, and the first to be recorded. Anthony Hesch of A. H. Entertainers, distributers of juke boxes in this area, is helping plug the new song by putting it on all his machines and featuring it at his record store at 16 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.

SEVERAL YEARS ago Hesch helped make a number one hit parade tune out of "You Can't Be True," also produced by a local man, and became a sensation overnight.

"I feel Ty has got another hit in his song and I will do everything in my power to plug it," said Hesch. "Ken Griffin, organist who was featured on the first recordings of "You Can't Be True," also got his start at that time and he now has made a name for himself."

"Cross the Mason-Dixon Line" is a catchy tune, which causes people who hear it to automatically start beating time with their feet. The Ella Wilson Trio combo heard on the recording is also known locally, having been featured several times at Eddie's cocktail lounge.

Though a pharmacist by trade, Ty makes music his hobby. He's been writing songs and lyrics for more than ten years. Many times a new melody had its beginning as Ty drove along the highway when he was detailing pharmaceuticals to hospitals, doctors and drug stores, for the Lederle laboratories. He would begin humming the melody and at the first opportunity would jot the score down on paper. His wife, Penny, would then play it on the piano and help iron out the kinks.

Folkman photo

TY HAS appeared on radio and television in the past, and has sung as guest artist at several Chicago night clubs. His wife is also a former radio and stage star, featured as a singer and actress. They have two sons, Dean, 16, and Ronald, 10.

A graduate of the University of Illinois, Ty has been a pharmacist since 1935, and has been in Arlington Heights five years. His song has been recorded on a Canyon record, a new label to be used for all his recordings.

"To date the local response on 'Cross the Mason-Dixon Line' has been excellent," stated Hesch, "and I feel the record is going to be a big success."

Programs for Chicago Symphony Orchesta

George A. Kuyper, manager of the Chicago symphony orchestra, announces a number of events which will be presented at Orchestra Hall under his management during the 1952-53 season.

Music-lovers will wish to mark their calendars for three recitals by distinguished artists who will also be soloists with the Chicago symphony orchestra: Irmgard Seefried, leading soprano of the Vienna Opera, whom Kuyper will present on Monday evening, November 24; William Kapell, the pianist, who is an especial favorite of Chicagoans, whose recital will be Monday evening, January 19; and Vladimir Horowitz, the great pianist, returning to public performances after a year's absence, Monday, April 13.

Kuyper is also presenting a notable dance debut Monday evening, November 10, when the famous Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival with Ruth St. Denis will come to Orchestra Hall. This marks the first tour of the noted assemblage which each summer performs under the direction of Ted Shawn for many thousands who journey to the Berkshires to attend.

Vets' Education

Veterans honorably discharged since June 27, 1950, may immediately file an informal application for education benefits, the Illinois veterans' commission announced.

"Although new forms are not yet available and new procedures are not yet established, the filing of an informal application will protect the veteran with respect to a starting date," IVC administrator A. R. Kays said.

IVC offices are located at 164 N. Marion, Oak Park, and 213 Liberty building, Wheaton.

First Parking Lot

Legal transactions for the purchase of land to be used as Des Plaines' No. 1 parking lot at Graceland and Prairie aves. have just about been completed except in the case of one property owner.

Deals have been closed and the city now owns the former Frisbie and Bank Building corp. land. Money to be paid the Sigwalt Trust for its land is in escrow.

Officials have had conferences regarding the possibility of purchasing a 60 ft. strip of land immediately to the west of the Journal's new building on Pearson st. for another parking lot. However, they said, the city and owners, H. Rothery, have not agreed on a price yet.

MT. PROSPECT LIONS CLUB

CARNIVAL

AUGUST 21 - 22 - 23 - 24

Near Northwest Highway, next to Village Hall

Proceeds of this carnival - like in other years of the Lions Club Fall Festival - will be used entirely for civic enterprises. Your carnival participation means:

1. Completion of the street sign project. Every street is to be permanently identified.
2. Continued maintenance and improvement of the depot parking lots, finest in the Northwest area.
3. A program of improvements for Lions Memorial Park. Let's finish the job.

WULBECKERS AND WHITTONS TIE IN PADDOCK TOURNEY

The all-star football game at Soldiers field opened the season for the grid sport in the Chicago area with a very fine ball game marred only by rain and a slippery field. We thought the spirited all-stars had the edge in spite of their defeat. The Rams gave indications of being a long way from the class they need to defend their pro title. The all-stars were one of the better teams Arch Ward has lined up for opposition. Punting was excellent, tackling very sharp, and pass defense very good. More scoring would have occurred if the field had been dry and the edge would have then been with the college boys.

Practice Starts Monday
As Cards Prepare For Barrington And Pirates For Warren

Locally football will get underway next Monday on a practice basis in the high schools with the first scheduled games three full weeks later. Arlington Heights will open at home with Barrington, former Northwest champ 4 years in a row and now a member of the North Suburban conference. The Cards have picked a rugged foe and will be underdog against the potent Bronchos.

Palatine, aided by the presence of a goodly number of veteran Northbrook players, should be able to field a strong lineup for their opener under lights at Community park with Warren high of Gurnee September 13.

Pirates Have Only One Regular Returning So Northbrook Will Help

Palatine lost 10 of their 11 regulars by graduation with Dick Abrahamson at end the only consistent starter available for this season. There are seven other good lettermen and at least eight Northbrook lettermen, mostly linemen, to round out a good team. Other Palatine boys who saw action last year are Harlan Gephart, fullback; Ken Rehusch, quarterback; Paul Schrage, halfback; "Gene" Holtzee, guard; Walter Swanson, tackle; Ralph Burden, end; and "Chuck" James, center. We expect that one of Palatine's best will be Norman Stenzil who set the conference afire last year with his brilliant open field running as a sophomore. He will give Palatine a type of scoring threat lacking for many seasons.

Another Little Giant In McHenry County Emulates Hebron Feats

McHenry county can well be proud of the accomplishments of their athletes the past year, particularly from small communities. Following in the footsteps of the great Hebron team which won the state championship in high school basketball, the neighboring community of Johnsburg, too small to have a high school, just recently won the state amateur baseball championship by nipping Elgin, 2-1, in the state tourney finals.

As with Hebron and their Judson brother act the Johnsburg team featured a brother battery combination of Joe and George Jackson. It all goes to prove that regardless of size of a town there is always a chance to reach the top in sports.

Ties Complicate Paddock Tourney — But Added Medals Please Contestants

The Paddock tournament Sunday was the best they have sponsored. Bob had remarked early in the afternoon "What do we do if there is a tie?" "That possibility seemed remote and nothing was discussed. When Wulbeckers and Whittons did tie it was too late for a playoff and the decision was finally reached to give both teams gold medals and flip for the name on the trophy. "Bud" McKaig of Lingren's Mens Wear stated he never heard of a team winning third and getting second place medals but that is what happened. Lingrens and Busse's tied for third so they flipped for second and third awards with Busse's getting the seconds. This was done because both teams tying for first were given gold medals.

Golden's Food Back in First in Mt. Prospect Golf

The red hot Golden boys from Golden's Food Shop continued their winning ways in the Tuesday division of the Mt. Prospect twilight golf league and recaptured first place. The K. R. Whitton team, which was in first place last week and became eligible for the Paddock tourney, was pushed back to second. The Comm. Busse team held onto third.

All three of the leading teams won their matches, but the Golden team won nine points from H. A. Dooley Realtors to take over the lead. Whitton Realtors won seven points from Van's and the Busse boys won six points from Moler's Barber Shop.

TWO MORE evenings of play remain. The third place team is only 4½ points out of first place. Any team can win.

With about 60 guests expected, the Legion is planning a special program of a headline speaker, plus introduction of the local American Legion ball team, second half champions, Bob Virgil, American Legion oratorical contest winner, and the local Boys State representatives, Mark Creviston and Tom Theis.

Little League at Arlington Next Year

That Little League baseball will be a definite recreation in Arlington Heights next year was announced by park district recreation director Russ Attis this week. Both the Kiwanis and American Legion of Arlington Heights have indicated they will sustain teams in '53.

Two teams tied for top spot in Paddock Publications' inter-league golf handicap Sunday at Mt. Prospect. Pictured above are, bottom row, left to right, Wulbecker Furniture of Rob Roy league: Paul Wulbecker, Harvey Laufman and Raymond Haase. Carl Hammerl had disappeared from the premises by the time the last foursome was in and results compiled. Top row, K. R. Whitton Realtors of Mt. Prospect league, Fred Welsh, Jim Driscoll, Bill Hartman and Gordon Peterson.

In the most closely contested and interesting of the three golf tournaments Paddock Publications has sponsored, Wulbecker Furniture of Rob Roy league and Whitton Realtors of Mt. Prospect Tuesday division battled to a tie score of 286 net. To further complicate the matter of awards Busse Motors of the Mt. Prospect Wednesday league and Lingren's Mens Wear of the Arlington League tied for third honors with a net team score of 295. The tournament, involving top teams in each of seven twi-light leagues in the Paddock Publications area, was held at the Mt. Prospect golf club Sunday afternoon and played on a team handicap basis.

Wulbecker Furniture team will have its name and names of team members engraved on the huge traveling trophy which already bears the name of Arlington Bank of 1950 and Hook's Nursery of 1951. A toss of a coin decided the tie as far as the trophy was concerned but Paddocks will have another set of gold medals made so that members of both teams, Wulbecker's and Whitton's may be properly recognized as co-champs of the tournament.

THE THIRD place deadlock was broken by a flip of a coin with Busse Motors getting the second place silver medals and Lingren's Mens Wear taking the third place individual bronze awards.

The members of the winning teams tied for the title were for Wulbeckers: Harvey Laufman with 81-8-73, Carl Hammerl 78-8-70, Paul Wulbecker 89-14-75, Ray Haase 90-22-68, and for Whitton's: Fred Welsh 85-14-71, Jim Driscoll 87-15-72, Bill Hartman 90-19-71, and Gordon Peterson 97-25-72. On both teams the high handicap man came through with a very good net score to save the day.

It was the little Scotsman, Jim Campbell, most responsible for Lingren's team getting a third place tie. His 87 with a 20 handicap gave him a net of 67 for the low score of the tournament. Ray Haase of Wulbecker's, who was second low net with 68, deserves special commendation in helping Wulbecker's win first. Other Lingren players were Bud McKaig, Wilbur Dearie, and Jim Blizek.

Busse Motors was led into third place by George Henneberg who shot an 84 with a 14 handicap for a net of 70. Other Busse players were Roland Becker, Arthur Skelton, and Edward Maha. The latter played on last year's winning team.

LOW GROSS of the tournament was won by a very fine golfer, Harry Lavin of Bensenville VFW who shot nines of 35 and 39 for a sparkling 74 and a net of 70. Lavin was the lowest handicap player of the tournament. He tuned up for the tournament with a 76 in the morning prior to the championship round.

Second low gross was made by Carl Hammerl of the Wulbecker team who carded a 38-40 for 78 and also a net 70. Jerry Goble of Bensenville had an 80 and Harvey Laufman of Wulbecker an 81 for other fine gross scores.

The Mt. Prospect course managed by Bob Sophie was in excellent condition, the weather was perfect for golf, and the competition better than previous years.

Name All-Stars for Legion Game at Park Ridge Sunday

Three Arlington, three Palatine and two Mt. Prospect players were named this week to compete in Sunday's Park Ridge vs. American Legion all-star game at Hinkley field, Park Ridge. Game time is 3 p. m.

Selections named by Arlington coach Lloyd Meyer and Palatine coach Claude Bailey include Wayne Hesch at second base, Ted Bakalar at third and Bob Simmons on the mound from Arlington's second half championship aggregation. Hesch has been batting .400 in summer play while Bakalar has been hitting .333. Simmons won-lost record is 9-3.

From Palatine are Paul Schrage at third, Dick Abrahamson as catcher and first baseman, and Ken Rehusch in the outfield. Mt. Prospect will have catcher Charley Pederson behind the plate and Marshall Dahlstrom in the outfield as representatives.

Two boys were named from Barrington, including Mickey McGowan at short and Charley Hohefelder at third. From Franklin Park weer chosen Lueth at short, Moehler on the mound and Mork at first.

The all-stars will oppose Park Ridge, winners the first half, as the final curtain on the Legion ball program for the area Sunday, August 24.

Redwings Win; Stanfa Next

Arlington Redwings continued their winning ways in tournament play against Erickson Boosters in Evanston Sunday, 4-0. They meet Stanfa Scouts at Recreation park this Sunday at 3 p. m. The winner will meet Alderman Keane Boosters for the championship the following Sunday.

The Redwings combined hits by Hornbrott and Stange with a sacrifice hit by Meathe for initial score in the sixth. In the eighth hits by Lange and Wasco brought in the former.

Two more were tallied by the locals in the ninth when Simpson doubled but was out at third on Groh's fielder's choice. O'Shaunessy was hit by a pitched ball and Schiewe was on base on an error. Lange flied out but Hornbrott singled and two runs were in.

Erickson Boosters loaded the bags in the third inning, but to no avail. A walk and two hits were included. The losers had two men on base in the ninth but once again to no avail.

Palatine Motors Dumps Oak Park

For the second Sunday in a row Palatine Motors softball team beat one of the strongest teams in this area. Last week it was Libertyville, 2-1, and Sunday it was Oak Park, 3-1.

Palatine started fast. In the first inning Santucci walked and Bob Lee sacrificed him to second. Majewski flied out in left field. With two out Wickersham walked and stole second, putting men on second and third.

BUCK HARRIS singled to center field, driving in two runs, which would have been enough for victory. Palatine got their last run on a double by Ned Wickersham, who scored all the way as Fox, Oak Park's left fielder, let the ball go through him.

Dick Heiden, Palatine's pitching ace, had a shut out until one out in the ninth. At this point "Boomer" Fraz hit a home run. Dick got the next two batters out and had a beautiful four hit, three to one victory. Heiden struck out nine. The league's leading batter, "Augie" Jacobs, struck out four times in a row.

OAK PARK threatened only in the first and third innings. These were both stopped before any damage could be done. In the third with Shelton first, Bloodford hit a long fly ball to right field which Harris snared.

This Wednesday Palatine travels to Libertyville for a big game. If they win they will tie Libertyville for first place. Sunday evening Highland Park is scheduled to come to Palatine.

Big inning for Mt. Prospect was the third when Dahlstrom led off with a single, Dassonville walked, and Pedersen singled, scoring Dahlstrom. Butler hit one straight center, Dassonville tallying. LaMay grounded out, but Linneman singled, scoring Pedersen and Butler.

Mike McDonald of Prospect Heights and Dick Hauff of Arlington Heights are among local golfers still qualifying for honors in tournaments across the country.

Mike, playing in the Cook county amateur golf tournament at Columbus park in Chicago, carded 35-38—73 Monday, then tallied a 71 Tuesday. Match play for the 31 qualifiers started Wednesday pitting McDonald, freshman-to-be at Arlington Heights high school, against Harry Musatto of Sunset Valley. Mike calls Rob Roy home, where his dad is pro-owner.

Others qualifying in the same tournament include Bob Schlegel of Roselle with 74-68—142; Floyd Braeske of Inverness with 70-71—141; and Florian Kruk of White Pines with 74-70—144.

Dick Hauff of Arlington Hts. tallied 81-78 in the PGA national caddy golf tournament at Columbus, Ohio. At Medinah country club Monday the two-some of Matt Jans and Jack Coleman of Rolling Green carded 155 in the annual pro-junior title of the Chicago district golf association. Club pros were paired with junior members of the club.

Hole-in-one at Tam

Wheeling Stars Down N'brook

Wheeling Little League all-stars defeated the Northbrook all-stars last Wednesday, 6-5, in an exciting game.

Wheeling trailed going into the fourth inning, 3-0, when they tallied five runs. Halverson led off with a double and scored on Jesse's hard single to left. Dever hit a hard smash to the shortstop, who threw to second too late to force Jesse. Jesse went to third on a passed ball. Rudolph bounced sharply to the first baseman who threw home but Jesse slid safely under the throw. Bartmann struck out but Heckenbach, batting for Bellmore hit a double scoring Dever and Rudolph. Meling struck out for the second out but Cokenower singled to left scoring Heckenbach for the fifth run. Nehmer lined to the first baseman to end the inning. Wheeling added another run in the fifth on hits by Jesse and Dever.

WITH THE SCORE 6-3, Northbrook threatened in the last of the sixth when they scored two runs on two hits and an error.

Jesse led the hitters with 3 for 3 and Bartmann pitched one of his best games.

Sunday afternoon the Amvets defeated the Lions in the first game of a double header 8-6 and the Lions defeated the Chamber of Commerce in the second game 9-8.

Next Sunday the Wheeling all-stars play Morton Grove at the Wheeling school diamond beginning at 2:00 p. m.

Graziano has drawn the largest gate and crowds in indoor history in two middleweight title fights at the Stadium. He has lost only once in Chicago and is anxious to avenge that.

Davey is unbeaten in 35 pro fights. Meanwhile Graziano is one of the most dangerous punchers in the game, especially when he has a weight advantage

Rob Roy League Had It Coming

That Rob Roy league golfers received their just desserts was borne out this week in a study of past performances in Paddock Publications' Inter-League golf handicaps of the past three years. Rob Roy league entry, Wulbecker Furniture, tied with Whitton Realtors of Mt. Prospect Tuesday league in first place, then won the toss for the trophy. Both squads received gold medals.

Back in 1950 Rob Roy's entry, L-Nor Cleaners, finished seventh, though tying for second in actual strokes. The loops' representative in '51, Prospect Hts. Appliances, once again rated second in actual strokes, yet finished sixth. This year the loop foursome landed first in both "gross" and "net" to take full honors, though the latter was marred by a tie. Rob Roy's golfers have the best record over the three tournaments with 1054 strokes for an 87.8 average.

ACCORDING TO positions at the finish of each tournament, the Arlington Heights league entries are tops with 7½ points, followed by Mt. Prospect Wednesday division, just one behind. The Arlington foursomes have finished first, third and tied for third.

Bensenville VFW league has finished third, second and fifth, but rank second to Rob Roy in gross by five strokes. In net scores, Bensenville ranks most consistent with 303, 302 and 299.

St. James league, playing at Rob Roy club but selecting its personnel from much more of a limited group in its third year of operation, ranks at the bottom in total positions, total gross and total net. Individual averages for all three years is 96.4.

INDIVIDUALLY, Paddock tourney golfers have taken 7,693 strokes in 84 rounds for a 91.6 average. There have been five scores under 80, three of them Bensenville men. Lo Walch of Roselle notched a 72 in '51.

Harry Lavin of Bensenville carded a 74 Sunday, Bob Geils of Bensenville rated 78 in 1951, Carl Hammerl of Rob Roy league hit 78 Sunday and Ray Kehoe of Bensenville made the first under-80 tally with a 79 in 1950, first year of the tournament.

There have been 16 scores of 100-and-over, nine of them coming a year ago when weather and course were particularly dry, making hard and fast greens and crossing up many a putt. Ironically, the highest score of the three-year meet was a 116 carded by Bob Walsh of Bensenville in 1950, whose name greatly resembles that of the low man, Leo Walch.

IN A REHASH of the tournament some golfers have expressed concern over the higher handicaps of leagues operating in the northern half of Paddock Publications area. Handicaps for all leagues in the tournament were computed in identical manner, though, obviously, some courses are harder than others and affect handicap play in a tournament.

Other suggestion is to hold the tournament on a "neutral" course where none of the leagues involved play regularly. Sponsors have had a difficult time to place the tournament on a Sunday and have been thankful for the cooperation of Bob Sophie of the Mt. Prospect club in permitting the meet on a day when public play is heavy.

Any solutions to problems, and other thoughts on the tournament, will be welcomed in writing from golfers of any of the leagues involved.

Lingren's Takes Over First in Arlington Golf

Lingren's Men's Wear continued its winning ways Friday night in the Arlington Heights Twilight golf league. The team has regained the league lead by taking 8½ points from Arlington Bank while Lohr's Pharmacy and Jahn's Service gained six and seven markers respectively, placing the latter two in a deadlock for second place, 2½ behind Lingren's.

The race for league leadership is very close and one of the most interesting in recent years, with the sixth place team just 7½ out of first. With only two nights of play remaining, every stroke becomes more important. Incidentally, Lingren's won the matched-card playoff for the Paddock tourney entry, taking eight from Lohr's Pharmacy.

RESULTS OF Friday's play showed Arlington Bowling taking six from Black's Memorial, with Bill Jurs star for the latter with a 40-6-34, good for three. Mar Johnson's also gained six markers in competition with Lohr's Pharmacy. Hal Garey was leader for Mar's with his best round of the year, a 42-9-33, good for three.

Jahn's Service took seven from Duntemans Dairy, keeping the latter in the cellar of league standings. For Jahn's John Eiler again came through with a good-for-three 39-7-32.

Chuck Kleinofen posted a good, steady 36-3-33, good for three of the seven Lauterburg and Oehler took from Tody's Lounge. Tody's won only two matches; considers itself lucky to earn five.

Borgardt's Sinclair gained 7½ in its match with Schiller Carpet. For the former, Ed Hill and Jim Stewart teamed up to take 4½ scores.

Arlington Youth Invited to Model Plane Tests in Detroit

Invitations sent out to the "Olympic games of model aviation," Plymouth motor corporation's sixth international model plane contest, included the name of one youngster from Arlington Heights.

This contest, model aviation's greatest event, is being held at Detroit Aug. 20-25 for a select group of 500 of the top model plane flyers from the United States and Canada whose outstanding flying records earned them the invitations. Some 25,000 youths sought bids to the meet through their attempts to qualify in one of the 200 elimination contests held earlier this year.

Awaiting those who receive invitations to the International are four days of flying in the stiffest competition America has to offer, a well rounded schedule of sightseeing and entertainment in and around Detroit, prizes including $4,725 in U. S. Savings bonds, and 103 beautiful trophies for the winners.

Among those invited is Don H. Helfers, 17, 16 E. Northwest hwy. He is sponsored by Mac Nevin Motor Sales, Inc., of Des Plaines.

Also invited is Walter T. Brownell, 19, 607 S. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect. He is sponsored by the Chicagoland Plymouth dealers.

Winning prizes were: Dorothy Carter, Gail Smith, Cathy Orr, Bill Salzman, All Fahrner, Jane Salzman.

Third place in Paddock Publications' golf tournament Sunday at Mt. Prospect golf club went to Lingren's Men's Wear, bottom row, and Busse Motors, top row, flipped a coin for second place medals. Football Loop Race Tight

The Northern Illinois fastball league title chase became a wide-open affair early this week as a result of Palatine's stinging 3-1 defeat of visiting Oak Park Sunday evening.

Two crucial battles were carded for this week with Palatine visiting Libertyville Wednesday evening and Libertyville treking to Oak Park Friday. Outcome of these two decisions will go a long way toward deciding the 1952 league champion.

Earlier in the week the league-leading Comets defeated Highland Park, 5-4, in an 11 inning thriller in Libertyville. The victory enabled the Comets to make it a clean sweep over the Merchants in four meetings this season.

Heights Legion Beats Roseland

The Arlington Heights American Legion team advanced to the semi-finals in its quest for the Cook county championship by defeating Roseland, 12-3, Saturday at Arlington. Roseland was the winner of the 3rd district.

Roseland jumped to a one run lead in the first inning on a base on balls and a throwing error by Verret. Arlington tied it up in their half of the inning. Ryden led off with a walk, Bakalar bunted him to second, Hesch walked and both runners advanced on a passed ball.

ROGER THOMAS then singled to right to bring in Ryden, but Hesch was out at the plate. The second inning brought another run for Poole's Fords. Lemke and Dotts both walked. The next two men made out but Ryden slashed a hit to center to put Arlington back in the lead.

The third inning proved the big one for the locals when five runs crossed the plate. Thomas led off with a line single. Sieburg and Lemke then hit into force plays. With two out, Dotts walked, Verret doubled to left center, Simmons walked, Ryden got his second of four straight hits, a double to right center. Bakalar then singled and Hesch ended the inning with a long fly to left.

Arlington added another run in the fourth inning, three more in the fifth and one in the sixth. Ryden, Bakalar, Hesch and Simmons had the important hits in these innings.

Simmons pitched the first five innings of the game allowing four hits, striking out 6 and walking 4. Sargent and Shanklin each hurled a perfect inning retiring the side in order.

Mount Prospect women's bowling team, last season's first place team in Bowling Lanes women's classic and women's traveling classic leagues, captained by Sarah Alongi, and sponsored by Hank Sophie, owner of Mount Prospect country club and fireside bowl, 2648 W. Fullerton, will bowl the Berghoff Beer women's team, formerly Carbide Saw and Tool, in an exhibition match at the formal opening of the Palace recreation, 5242 W. 25th st., Cicero, Saturday, August 23, at 8:00 p.m.

Ruth Jensen 184, 3rd place, national all star tournament, 1951-52. 5th place, all events, national women's international bowling congress.

The season of 1951-52 marked the third consecutive year this team has won the city championship (scratch) in addition to being the title holder in the northern Illinois tournament held in Elgin. They placed 2nd in the women's international bowling congress national tournament at St. Louis, Mo., 1951-52.

Makes Contribution To Hall of Fame

During his vacation tour in the east Elden G. Gieske of Barrington stopped at Cooperstown, N. Y., and made a contribution to the baseball hall of fame.

Gieske presented to the museum a souvenir score card and the ticket stubs of the all-star baseball game of the century held at Comiskey Park, Chicago, in July, 1933.

This was the first all-star game in which players of the National and American leagues participated.

On a previous visit to the hall of fame, Gieske noticed that the score of the initial all-star meet was missing from the display so he offered his souvenir and it was gratefully accepted by the director.

It was interesting to note, Gieske said, that 11 of the players of that first all-star game now are immortalized in the hall of fame.

Fifty-Nine Candidates to Report Sept. 3 for Illinois Grid Practice

Fifty-nine candidates, one of the smallest squads in Illini history, have been invited by Coach Ray Eliot to report for fall practice Sept. 3 at University of Illinois.

Included on Eliot's invitation list from which he must mold a team to defend the Big Ten championship, are 20 lettermen from the title squad, two monogram winners from 1950, three reserves from the Rose Bowl group, 31 squad members of varying degrees of experience, and three freshmen enrollees of February who will be eligible this season.

ELIOT BELIEVES Illinois will have a good college football team in 1952. Whether it can develop greatness depends upon many factors.

"We have promising, but untested new men who must be fitted into vacancies created by graduation," Eliot said. "We cannot be sure returning lettermen will maintain or improve their levels of performance in 1951. And, no one knows how the football will bounce in a rugged nine-game schedule such as we face."

Eliot stacks the squad assets on one side as follows: (1) 22 lettermen available; (2) good, veteran personnel at end, quarterback, and fullback; (3) return of defensive backfield and five of defensive platoon in the line; (4) potential overall team speed; (5) sound passing and adequate kicking.

BALANCING these hopeful factors are liabilities which the Illini coach must offset. They are: (1) loss by graduation of five first-string linemen; (2) lack of experience at halfback; (3) lack of experienced personnel at line-backing; (4) lack of depth at guard, especially on defense; (5) lack of depth at tackle.

Illinois, on paper, appears strongest at the ends with five lettermen, all of whom played regularly, Rex Smith, John Ryan, Cliff Waldbeser, Lawrence Stevens, and Andy Wodziak; at quarterback with brilliant Tommy O'Connell; at fullback with Bill Tate, "player of the 1952 Rose Bowl game," and at defensive backs where the trio of Capt. Al Brosky, Herb Neathery, and Stan Wallace probably is unequalled in the nation.

Futurity at Washington

The 14th running of the Washington Park Futurity, which will gross over $100,000 carded during the co-ordinated meeting and when the $50,000 added juvenile stakes race comes up Saturday, it will launch the distribution of $205,000 in added money in the final eight days of racing at Washington Park.

THERE ARE 215 juveniles eligible for the Washington Park Futurity, among them winners of many major two-year-old stakes of the year. The Futurity, raised from $30,000 to $50,000 added this year by Executive Director Benjamin F. Lindheimer will compare closely in value with its Arlington Park counterpart, which grossed $108,985 and earned $81,575 for Mr. Good.

Eligibles for the Futurity include Martin and McKinney's Mr. Good, winner of the Arlington Futurity; Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Mr. Paradise, second in the Arlington juvenile classic, and in the Prairie State Stakes last week; Dixiana Farm's Spy Defense; Fred W. Hooper's Brookhaven and Big Hoop; John E. Hughes' Vidi Vici, and J. J. Amiel's Sun Warrior, second in the Sapling Stakes, Aug. 9.

S. A. ALEXANDER has five eligibles, including Sid's Pride and Sweet Cream; Allison and Prestridge have four, including Partners-All and Royal Grandeur; James C. Brady and Landlocked and Doc Walker, and Calumet has a quartet including Bob Away, Breese By, Conjure and Meditate.

The net value to the winner of the Futurity will be approximately $85,000. Second place will be worth $15,000, with $7,500 to third and $3,750 to fourth.

Mt. Prospect Merchants Enter City Tournament

Mt. Prospect Merchants have submitted their application for entrance into major league play, the All-American tournament to be played at Thillens stadium, Devon and Kedzie, August 29, 30, 31 and September 1.

Preparing for the tough play ahead the Merchants played four games the week of Tuesday, August 12, to 19th.

Tuesday, August 12, the locals played their south side rivals and defeated them 19-1.

THURSDAY EVENING against Oak Park the Merchants played one of their finest games of the year to beat a tough team, 12-1. Soenkson, on the mound, allowed just one hit and struck out ten. Boedeker led his team with three singles and a triple in four times at bat.

Sunday afternoon they met the fighting Niles team and came out on the short end of a 6-5 game. Niles scored four runs in the first inning to jump ahead to a comfortable lead. Then the Merchants, fighting back, tied it with four in their half of the second. The lead changed hands twice until Niles won with one in the 7th. Nolte and Nau led their team at the plate while Chuck Wille turned in sparkling defensive plays. For Niles it was Ihne and Worman with two hits apiece. Peterson struck out ten Niles batters.

MONDAY EVENING the Merchants faced Bensenville and fought to a 4-4 tie as the game was called after 5 innings because of darkness. Thill started on the mound after a three week layoff due to a sore arm. He struck out eight of the first nine to face him and then Bensenville scored four runs as his arm tired. Soenkson relieved in the fifth and retired the side in order. Mt. Prospect scored one in the first, second and fouth innings and the tying run in the fifth.

Friday, August 22, the locals travel to Bensenville for a night game at 7:00 p. m. at Bensenville high school. Saturday evening, its another night game at Rand Park against the Des Plaines all-stars. Game time 6:30. Sunday it's a return match at Niles, at the school grounds at 3:00 p. m.

as a number of men came through with good games. We think the round of 87 with a 20 handicap shot by Jim Campbell of Lingren's was just about the best with Ray Haase's 90 with a 22 handicap not far behind. Harry Lavin of Bensenville was the finest golfer in the tourney with a gross 74 but the competition was on team rather than individual basis. Carl Hammerl's 78 would indicate banking and golfing are a good combination. Most consistent and well balanced was the Whitton team with two plays netting 71 and two others 72.

New Barrington Coach Was All-Stater in High School at Pekin

Jack Kinder, Barrington's new coach, comes to the Bronchos with quite a record. He was all-state in football and basketball at Pekin, and a 12 letter winner at Illinois Wesleyan. Going to Wilmington where the school had been in the cellar he came up with championships in two sports in his second year. At Barrington Kinder will handle varsity baseball, assist with varsity football, and coach frosh-sophs in basketball. He fills the vacancy left by the resignation of Les Harmon who brought Barrington it's most outstanding sports records in the history of the school. Tom Frederick, varsity football and track coach, has been promoted to Harmon's athletic directorship and Harold Gaffney has moved up from frosh-soph to varsity cage coach. Harman is principal of the new North Chicago high school district.

Regatta Sunday in Lake Michigan

The sailing regatta and water spectacle in Lake Michigan that annually attracts more yachts than any other fresh water competition will be held Sunday off shore from Adler Planetarium and Shedd Aquarium in Chicago.

Some 300 sailing craft in 36 classes will race on three triangular courses with starting time from 10:35 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. Early matches involve dinghies, sailing canoes and small yachts. The last to answer the starter's flag will be the 60-foot Class A cruisers.

Special aquatic events will entertain spectators while the yachts are at sea.

Motor boats will race all day north of the Aquarium. The Illinois water ski association will present a thrill show at 2:30 p.m. in that area.

Guest stars and announcers appearing at the three regatta microphones will include Mary Hartline and Claude Kirchner of ABC's Super Circus, Peggy Taylor, singing star of the Breakfast Club, and radio and TV announcers Jim Ameche and Wayne Griffin.

Sea Explorer cutter races, demonstrations by the city's fireboat, Joseph Medill, and by sea survival units from the Glenview naval air station, also are included in the seven-hour program.

Free grandstand space will stretch a mile and a half long the lake front and there will be free parking near the Planetarium and Soldier Field.

Expect 15 Veterans for Football at DeKalb

Riddled by graduation and losses to the armed forces, Northern Illinois State's football Huskies are now faced with a major rebuilding job in their defense of the IIAC championship.

Last year Coach George "Chick" Evans, a winning coach in 22 of his 23 seasons at DeKalb, guided the Huskies to the undisputed Interstate intercollegiate athletic conference trophy, and to an all-victorious season in nine games.

Among players expected back by Evans is Bob Schulze of Arlington Heights.

The call that saved a life!

6322 South Kedvale Avenue
Chicago 29, Illinois
February 18, 1952

Manager, Illinois Bell Telephone Company
1512 West 63rd Street
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Sir:

On the morning of January 5 my life was saved by the prompt, coolheaded action of one of your operators.

At about 5:30 a.m. I suffered a very severe heart attack at my home. In the excitement my daughter-in-law dialed "Operator" and appealed for help. Within minutes your operator had a pulmotor squad on its way. And none too soon. For three hours my doctor, using heroic measures, and the firemen with their life-giving oxygen, battled to save my life.

Today I am on the road to recovery, thanks to the quick action of one of your fine operators. Again and again I have thought, how tender and frail the thin line that leads from Death up into Life, and yet in our direst moments how strong! At 5:40 a.m. that morning of January 5 it must have been the telephone line.

Sincerely yours,
Walter E. Jensil

The operator who handled the call

Esther Downs, Portsmouth Office, Chicago

On an average, Illinois Bell operators handle about 4,800 emergency calls a day. At tense times like this, isn't it reassuring to know that "the voice with the smile" is always at the other end of your telephone line to help you?

The important differences between the Democrats and Republicans is in the tariff plank—the Democratic plank, drawn by Mr. Bryan, advocates a tariff for revenue only. The Republicans favor a tariff for protection only.

The Democrats claim that the high cost of living is caused by high tariff. The Republicans claim that the higher wage scale in this country more than compensates for the tariff, raising the price of luxuries and not the necessities of life.

Euclid Gates

So installation of gates at Euclid crossing, Arlington Heights, is to be delayed again! It is understandable that such work at time of "racing season" would be quite an inconvenience. But then, at that time, adequate protection was provided. It is my contention that safety, like charity, begins at home. It would be interesting to know why installation has been delayed. The delay last April was attributed to labor difficulties—what now?

It was my earnest hope that Euclid crossing would have gates before the beginning of September. Perhaps with cooperation from a few other families in the vicinity of Euclid ave. and Northwest highway, this might have been accomplished. Soon we can close windows and doors against the almost perpetual whistles, "toots" and "blasts."

It might be of interest to others living in this vicinity to know that "in case of accidents," the railroad is protected against suits of any sort by the zig-zag signal at railroad crosssings. The representative sent by Illinois Commerce Commission insinuated that Euclid ave. crossing is one of the most dangerous on the route and that gates operated manually would be advisable.

Could the delay be caused by a reluctance to pay the required salary to the man designated to safeguard the crossing? Or are we so occupied with helping others that we overlook our own?

I had the pleasure of witnessing the wonderful performance of the Northwest Mounted Black Horse troop at 4-H club show this past Sunday at Arlington Park race track. Mt. Prospect Growth

I am writing because I was so much impressed with what Mt. Prospect has become. It is, beyond a doubt, the outstanding residential community of the Chicago area. Undoubtedly the people of the community realize this, at least some of them, because most of them have come because of the character of the village.

It is doubtful whether either the more recently arrived residents or many who have seen the village develop during the past ten years realize how this has come about, or why the inevitable expansion of the Chicago metropolitan area into the suburban areas has, in this particular community, been kept on a better basis than elsewhere.

It is reasonable that civic pride be based on things as they are, rather than on what they may become or on a consideration of what might have been. At the same time it is quite fitting and reasonable to include in civic pride a recognition of the leadership which has provided the vision and courage and persistence through which the easier path of unregulated and unplanned expansion was avoided, during these last ten critical years of community growth.

To you, and through you to the many other people who have contributed to giving Mt. Prospect its character and high standards, I offer my congratulations. There is more growth to come, but the foundation has been established and the pattern set. You will be forever thankful, and increasingly grateful for the civic leadership which built this foundation.

Parking Meters

A recent issue of the Arlington Heights Herald indicates that parking meters are coming to town. Of course, there must be the usual preliminaries to show that too many citizens are abusing the present rules and also that the village needs more money. If the latter is the greater of the two issues then it tends to become a racket with plenty of discrimination against the merchants along the streets with the better parking facilities and so driving the parkers to other localities where there is not sufficient room on the narrower streets, often onto well kept grassed areas.

In order to be fair to all merchants too much space is "protected" by meters and hence is kept vacant—useless — practically all of the time. Unless meters which will take a penny for 12 minutes are used there is an invitation to cheat to save a nickel when a space is vacated before the hour is up. Also, parkers will be encouraged to take a chance unless the police are extremely vigilant. To one who is caught and severely penalized it seems like a great injustice if he knows that another violator got away, and he will dislike the town.

We know that service is often slow in many of our stores, restaurants, and offices and a motorist is not to blame for parking overtime. That is, he is not a criminal to be fined so heavily that he will never use a parking meter again. That is the purpose of a stiff penalty.

A western town has overcome this attitude by admitting that there may be times when it is impossible for a motorist to return and move his car and he would be willing to pay a reasonable amount, voluntarily, for an extension of time. The ticket is made out on the back of a small envelope and he is given the opportunity to pay 25 cents for anything up to an additional hour, if it is dropped into a special box within twenty-four hours. If he does not cooperate the fine is raised to $1.00. If he does not pay that within ten days a warrant is issued and he is treated more as a law-breaker.

Good citizens like the system because they can stay and finish their business at a small extra cost, willingly, and he has 24 hours to borrow the two bits if he finds he is "short."

● IKE AND THE INDIANS

General Eisenhower, Republican candidate for president, made a speech the other day to the Indians down in New Mexico. The Indians to whom he was speaking had recently been granted full franchise, the right to vote the same as the white man.

In referring to this, Eisenhower said, "You have achieved and are going to exercise a greater degree of responsibility of citizenship than ever before. Only as you exercise this privilege all the time will you show to your white brethren the last and final example of proper citizenship in this great country that we are privileged to call our own."

A fine speech from a man who is reported to have voted once for the office of president of the United States and didn't do that until he was 58 years old.

● HOT BATTLE

All the scraps in the political pond are not being engaged in by the Republicans. The Democrats put on a real battle recently in the fight for who was to take Stevenson's place on the ticket for governor.

Secretary of State Barrett, the best vote getter of the Demos, wanted the job, but Governor Stevenson wanted Lieut. Gov. Dixon to have the place on the ticket. In the final showdown, Dixon won in a close fight.

The powerful patronage of the state and Cook county machines tipped the scales in favor of Dixon, and Barrett, the best vote getter of them all, was left out in the cold to continue his race for re-election as secretary of state.

Once more it was the powerhouse tactics of the big bosses and the machines that dictated the selection of a candidate, not the wishes of the voters themselves.

The G.O.P. should give the Democrats a vote of thanks for putting Dixon at the head of their state ticket. He'll be a lot easier to beat than Barrett, and it looks as if Bill Stratton, the Republican candidate, has been the beneficiary of a good break of luck with the nomination of Dixon by the Democrats.

● PROTESTS

From reports heard around the county building, the tax experts and tax attorneys who make a racket of objecting to taxes and going before the board of appeals to try to get valuations reduced are a pretty unhappy bunch this summer.

The board of appeals has been "hard boiled" on valuations and have made few reductions in valuations as compared with some previous years. The rate objectors, too, haven't been doing so well. Representatives of the Tri-county school boards association have fought tax objections of over two million dollars against the levies of their member school boards, and of this huge amount less than one hundred thousand dollars in objections was sustained by the courts.

This is a fine record and speaks well for the work being done for its members by this association of school boards. That the tax objection racket has been a lucrative field in the past can be seen from the fact that an average of five million dollars a year has been refunded to objectors according to reports.

Maybe some day a law will be passed that will make tax levies legal before the collection of taxes, or that will give everyone, non-objectors as well as objectors, the same rate of reduction if something is found illegal about the tax levies.

As it is now, only the objectors gain by a flaw in the tax rate, and this makes a fertile field for the tax sharks who are continually urging people to object to their taxes. A few years of the kind of results these tax sharks have obtained recently would appreciably reduce the number of tax objections.

● GOOD CROP

Some weeks ago we mentioned that fine potato patch of the Olsons at Benton and Slade sts., telling how uniform those plants had grown all season. Well, they kept it up until the very finish, and when the vines started to dry up they did it at once and each hill produced about half a dozen or so fine big White Cobblers of uniform size and a fine eating potato. As Mrs. Olson says, "We sure got our money's worth out of that patch."

● CROPS

With more rain than was necessary this season and with the weeds and grasses making a prolific growth in the fields, crop reports are not as generally cheerful as they often are in this area. Weeds and pigeon grass got into the grain fields badly and hampered harvesting, and reports as to the yields are quite varied.

Most of the farmers around here report the yields of small grain as of fine quality, but not as many bushels to the acre as in most seasons. Reports from farther north say many grain fields got so badly grown up with weeds and grass that the farmers just mowed the whole mess down and let it lay.

The corn crop under good growing conditions is booming along far ahead of last year, but some farmers are wondering if the corn is all going to stalk at the expense of the ears. Many other farmers are reporting that the ears are forming in good shape and that it looks like a whale of a corn crop at this time.

● TRUCK CROPS

The growers of truck crops are not as cheerful and optimistic as their general farming brothers. The tomato fields, which made a wonderful early growth and which cover the ground with huge bushes, are reported not to be setting the big crop expected and tomatoes are going to be scarce and high priced. Blight is also reported to have affected many fields.

We note the same conditions in back yard gardens regarding the tomato crop as is being reported from the big growers. The big bushy plants are setting few tomatoes and the weak, scrawny late planted plants are setting more fruit than the thrifty plants. The size of the fruit isn't as large, but there is more of it and they mature faster.

Onion growers, too, are reported to be taking a beating, the continued wet weather causing a lot of the onions to go soft and rot. One grower estimated that the onion growers would lose at least a third of their crop or worse.

But the local farmers and truckers are taking conditions in stride, and when someone mentions the drought-stricken areas of the south and east, their reaction is, "Oh, well, maybe it isn't as good as it has been some years, but we're pretty well off around here yet."

● FERTILIZER

And Oscar Plate has even found consolation in that blame pigeon grass that is growing everywhere this season. He says that it makes a fine fertilizer if plowed under at the right time. Oscar says he plowed under his soy bean crop last year and it did the land a lot of good and he's got the best stand of beans on that land this year he's ever seen.

Well, there is sure enough of that pigeon grass that can be plowed under as a cover crop this season. We are going to see how it works as fertilizer for a garden. We've got a wonderful crop of it and next year's garden ought to grow like one that is grown on freshly plowed sod land.

● FORGETFUL PEOPLE

We have heard so many people recently applying for drivers' licenses that were way late with their applications, that we sometimes wonder how they keep track of other things. One fellow didn't know his license had expired until he used his card for identification purposes; another was being questioned by a cop about speeding and when he produced his license, he found that he was a violator of another section of the law.

The late folks have all kinds of excuses, but most of them admit it is just forgetfulness and carelessness on their part.

● CLASS FOR PARENTS

A resident of Palanois Park makes the suggestion that the safety council along with their drive to protect the children of the community, establish a class for parents where instruction may be given the parents about educating their youngsters not to play in the streets and not to dash out into the streets when playing on the curbs.

This man drives a car, he's a careful driver, but he has often had to be extra careful not to hit some thoughtless youngster playing in the street, or who suddenly took a notion to dash into the street from the curb. This suggestion comes from a fellow who is all for the protection of the youngsters, but he does think that some of the parents need a little training themselves.

● WANT INSTRUCTIONS

For some time the Palatine village board has been wanting the railroad to fix up those wobbly looking shelter sheds. Now the railroad comes along and asks the village for specific instructions as to how they should fix them.

We wonder who they consulted when they cluttered up their downtown station with so many baggage check compartments, flower stands and one thing or another until they haven't got room for the time table racks where you can see them, and don't keep half of the compartments filled with time tables when you do find a rack hidden in behind some concession stand.

We notice they have eliminated those penny grabbing weighing machines; they have been missing for quite some time now.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

"As your child grows and needs new clothing, so he grows and needs new toys to stimulate and aid his full development." I was never more aware of this fact than when Nancy delighted Megan recently with a Playskool Sewing Box (a top I thought too advanced for her), complete with brightly colored beads to string in assorted shapes and sizes, a cardboard shoe to be laced with yarn, a cardboard dress with three buttons to be "sewn" on and a cardboard bed with fancy trimming to be worked, and I discovered that Megan could do the yarn work with a little help and the bead stringing completely unaided.

When I realized (after an inventory of the play-room) that this was practically the only toy suitable for her age group that Megan owned, I became quite interested in the informative little booklet which came with the sewing box. Written by Ethel Kawin, author of "Children of Pre-School Age" and "The Wise Choice of Toys" and now is Consultant in Child Development, Ill. Assoc. for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the booklet serves as an excellent guide in selecting the proper toys for children from infancy to school age.

"MODERN EDUCATORS recognize the fact that toys must do more than merely amuse the child. They should also play a definite part in the child's development. Healthful play habits are the foundation of a well adjusted, balanced personality in later years. Even though children of the same age often vary considerably in their physical, mental and social development, a child's chronological age serves as a general guide in choosing a good toy that is right for his age, because certain types of growth and activity are characteristic of certain age periods."

Our baby's first toy should be one of the dangling type or perhaps the kind that clamps on the crib. Watching the movement of the bright objects will interest him and help him learn to focus his eyes.

BY THE TIME he is three or four months old, he can grasp small objects—rattles, balls or cubes (always in primary colors) should entertain him. Since everything seems to go into the mouth, parents should be cautious in selecting toys. Toys should not have small parts which could come off and possibly be swallowed and parents should always inquire as to whether a harmless toy paint has been used.

The "destructive age" of the one year old is usually due to his natural curiosity and desire to take things apart and put them together again. Toys designed for this purpose may save mother's favorite lamp or daddy's alarm clock!

The "toddler" of fourteen to eighteen months will derive a great deal of pleasure from the push and pull type of toy and it will encourage him to exercise his newly acquired powers. Wheelless, non-tipping toys are best for him because they are not only easy to manipulate, but, also, won't become objects of frustration.

YOU'RE PROBABLY familiar with the "intelligence" tests psychologists use for pre-school children, such as fitting small cubes into a box of various shaped objects into their proper places. Now toy makers have designed many such puzzles exactly along these lines and they are found to be entertaining to the child as well as educational.

"People often make the mistake of giving a child toys only at Christmas or on birthdays. This method of presenting a child with too many toys at one time often only confuses him. Give him toys regularly . . . with thoughtfulness, not merely generosity. Remember — the toys are not just gifts . . . they are tools of play."

My love,
Patty.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

The answer to one question expressed by a single word is the answer to America's greatness. That question is "What?"

In almost every other nation, the question would be not "What?" but "Who?". Unless you are born somebody, it will be hard to be anybody of consequence. Ability, education, creative genius count much less than who you are or know.

In America, if you have the ability, you may be a street-sweeper, and become an opera star; a coal miner, and become a great labor leader; a clerk in a haberdashery, and become president; a ham radio operator, and become the owner of a radio factory; an Oklahoma cowboy with Indian blood, and become America's greatest humorist, and a great actor. In America, it is what you are that counts.

Ability is a word which covers a number of traits. You may have the ability to become a successful artist, yet fail because you lack persistence, tact, ambition, courage, or other attributes; yet men have often succeeded in spite of these lacks. Everyone who reads this article will know people whom they, and many others, di like, who have become successful executives, artists farmers, writers, speakers, or many other things. Even bad health has not kept people with will and determination plus real ability from success.

Boys and girls are appearing on talent shows every day, and the best of them are now on the road to success. Every year, eager highly paid scouts search schools and colleges throughout the country for serious, ambitious young men and women for executive, engineering and other good positions in factories, laboratories and organizations of all kinds. These organizations seldom ask where you come from. Their main question is "What?" What kind of personality, how much ability do you have?

Human intelligence and ability are America's greatest national resources. It is because America has given men and women from all walks the opportunity to do things that has made America the greatest, most powerful nation in the world. As long as free enterprise endures, as long as America asks "What?" rather than "Who?", she will retain her world leadership.

Record Cow

With 533 pounds of butterfat and 14,293 pounds of milk to her credit, Oatman Triune Ty Vic Rag Apple, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by Martin Loeber, Palatine, has completed a 361-day production test in official advanced registry.

She was milked two times daily, and was 3 years, 11 months of age when she began her testing period.

Her record averages approximately 18 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by the University of Illinois, in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

Pasture Demonstration On Rohlwing Farm

A pasture demonstration will be held on the Edmund Rohlwing farm, Meacham rd., 1 mile south of Schaumburg rd., Monday, August 25, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

This type of pasture is very common throughout Northern Cook county. Come and see the seed bed prepared, fertilizer applied according to test, and learn about rotational grazing.

Pasture renovation will increase pasture days per acre from 100 up to 175 days or more. Make your pasture pay its own way the same as you expect your cropland to pay its way. Improved management will return excellent dividends on time and funds invested. High yields of nutritious roughage prevents erosion, improves the soil structure and increases milk, beef, and mutton produced per acre.

Increase your profits from your permanent pasture attending the demonstration at Rohlwings.

Here's One Farm Cost It Pays To Keep High

Providing crops with needed mineral fertilizers and nitrogen adds up to quite a sizeable bill on Illinois farms these days, according to Illinois Farm Bureau Farm Management Service records.

Carl F. Mees, Cook county farm adviser, adds that farmers are apparently deciding it's a good things to keep this cost high, since they're increasing the amount of money put into the soil improvement.

Jack Claar, state supervisor of FBFMS fieldman, reports that in the northern two-thirds of the state cooperating farmers applied fertilizers and lime at the rate of $2.45 per tillable acre in 1950. About half of this cost was for fertilizers applied for one year only; the other half was made up of annual depreciation on rock phosphate, limestone and heavy applications of potash.

IN 1951 these same farmers put $2.93 per tillable acre into their farms, the whole increase of about 50 cents an acre going to the one-year commercial variety of fertilizer.

Cooperating farmers in south-central and southern Illinois put $3.75 per tillable acre into soil improvements last year. They had about the same cost as their neighbors to the north for rock phosphate and limestone, but spent an extra 75 cents per acre for commercial fertilizers and light applications of potash. This was to be expected, since these soils are naturally lower in minerals and nitrogen.

Money charged to soil improvement ranged from nothing to more than $15 per tillable acre on cooperating farms in 1951, Claar reported. This may be one good reason why corn production ranged from 30 to 100 bushels on the same soil type last year.

Borer 5th Column Veils Activities

Many tree borers, insect fifth columnists, prey on the weak from behind a wooden curtain. Often the most troublesome borers by-pass trees that are strong and healthy to attack those that are losing their growing vigor. Sometimes it is better to build up defenses against them than to fight them when strongly entrenched.

This, in effect, is the advice of C. A. Hoge, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. This season, often the driest, hottest and most depleting time to our tree friends, offers the best pickings for many types of borer attack. That is, it does unless you do something to make your trees more attractive to you and less attractive to the borer saboteur.

The Davey expert says once borers get into trunks or limbs, they're often very difficult to combat. If you spot only a few borer entry holes in a young tree, you may be able to poke in a wire and impale the pests. But the method is hardly practical with large trees.

Since many of the most damaging borers hanker for sickly, starving or badly injured trees, it is best to get your landscape attractions into shape to resist them.

Good tree practices do the trick. Feeding to restore growing vigor, pruning and waterproofing wounds and spraying foliage with reliable insecticides should help a lot.

Grand Champions Selected at 4-H Fair

A Purebred Guernsey took the grand championship in dairy cattle at the 4-H Club fair last week. It was a heifer owned by Ray Plote, son of Ernst Plote, Center road, Palatine. Ray has been in 4-H Club work four years. This is the first time one of his animals has won a grand championship award. Bak photo

The grand championship in beef cattle was won by Wanda Mae Warnke with her purebred Angus cow which had given birth to a calf the night before the award. The calf was on display with its mother. Wanda has been in 4-H Club work four years and has devoted the last two years to Angus cattle. She won the grand championship at last year's fair and at the recent Lake county fair at Wauconda. Seek Change in Tax Setup

A change is needed in the state's tax laws as one means of relieving the unfair local government tax burden by owners of real estate. That statement was made by I. E. Parett, secretary of public relations for the Illinios agricultural association.

Personal property, including intangibles, has never carried its fair share of the tax load, Parett said. Part of the failure in the past to assess intangibles and personal property at its true value can be laid at the door of an outmoded Illinois constitution.

"A CONSTITUTION written in 1870 could not be expected to envision the kinds of property that now exist," he said. "At that time, property consisted largely of farm land and city real estate," said the IAA public relations secretary.

At present, he pointed out, more than 60 per cent of the total value of property in one Illinois county can be found in the forms of stocks, bonds and other intangibles. That leaves only 40 per cent in real estate.

This 40 per cent in real estate, however, bears over 70 per cent of the taxes paid for local government expenditures.

If the revenue article to the constitution is amended in the Nov. 4 election, it will then be possible for all citizens to be treated fairly as far as taxes are concerned, Parett said. A "Yes" vote on the revenue amendment ballot will help bring about fair taxes and better government in Illinois, he concluded.

Dairy Farmers Economic Problems

Dairy farms are the first line of the nation's defense. With government authorities asking for greater production as costs keep rising, dairy farms face a serious economic "squeeze." In the interest of national welfare the spotlight of public attention should be turned on the economic problems of the milk producer.

"Dairy farmers operate on a small margin always," says Owen Richards, general manager of the American Dairy Association, "and milk production involves great risk and large investment. It involves greater hazards than most other businesses. Dairying faces the ordinary economic risks and uncertainties of the market and it is also subject to the natural calamities of drought, hail, floods, or disastrous snows. Come drought or high-water cows must be milked daily and the milk marketed. The milk factory can't be switched off like an industrial plant or the fresh milk put in storage warehouses.

"Costs of milk production have increased but the price of milk to the consumer is less than the 'all foods' averages. The price of labor has gone up. Expensive new machinery must be purchased if the milk supply is to be increased. The milk farmer is stretching the ends of his rope to make them meet.

"As costs of milk production have kept going up many farmers have sold cows or turned to beef raising which requires less care. Farmers are paying up to $325 for average milk cows, and more for mixed dairy feed. If milk prices had increased as much as wages in most sections milk would cost a lot more per quart.

"Milk is vital to the national defense, health, wealth and security. If the dairy farmer is to be kept in business, his increased costs must be balanced by increased returns, just as in any other business. And if the nation needs an increased milk supply serious attention must be given to the economic situation of the dairy farmer."

Study Shows 7 Ways to Market More 'A' Eggs

"We can't get enough high-quality eggs?" That's the question from Illinois poultrymen who would like to do something about it.

E. E. Broadbent, egg marketing specialist in the Illinois college of agriculture, says a study just completed by experiment station workers in the north central states answers this problem. And it's not an answer to be sneezed at in our state, he adds, because most of the high-priced and high-quality eggs sold in Illinois come from outside the state. The result is lower average prices for Illinois eggs.

IN THE STUDY of what happened when farmers followed one or more of seven recommended practices for turning out top-quality eggs, the researchers found that producers who followed all seven were able to market an average of 90 per cent of their eggs Grade A.

As the number of good practices used was reduced, the percentage of eggs grading A also dropped. Producers who followed none of the recommended practices marketed only 55 per cent of their eggs as Grade A.

The seven practices recommended for high quality and greater profits are: (1) Keep the laying flocks confined, (2) provide clean, dry litter, (3) provide clean, dry nesting material, (4) gather eggs often, (5) collect and cool them in wire baskets, (6) cool the eggs before packing them and (7) keep them stored under humid conditions.

Broadbent says that following these practise will help Illinois poultrymen produce high-quality eggs. But for highest profits there's another important step to follow: Sell eggs on a graded basis. If you produce only for a current-receipt or farm-run market, these good practices won't return nearly so much for your effort.

Garden Notes

In late August, sow a few short rows of radishes. If an early frost kills them, you have lost ten cents worth of seed. If it does not, you may get several meals of crisp and pleasantly-flavored radishes.

If you are going to plant the hardy bulbs of daffodils, tulips, and hyacinths for next spring's bloom, order or buy the bulbs soon.

The herbaceous perennial flowers that are propagated by divisions must not be expected to attain full size of plant or bloom immediately. It takes phlox about three years to reach good size. Hemerocallis also takes about three years. It takes bearded iris three or four years and peonies four or five years to reach full size and fullest bloom.

Contrary to general belief, the best time to start a new lawn is in August. Most of the grasses that will form the permanent lawn and most of the common nurse plants are winter annuals. In August the soil is usually dry, so grading and leveling operations can be carried out safely and the soil can be worked up into a fine and even seedbed.

Nearly all new lawns are badly overseeded. Most of the permanent grasses run about 2,000,000 seeds to the pound. You only want three or four of the permanent grasses and only one nurse plant per square inch. If your lawn grasss comes up "thicker than hair on a dog's back" the plants will crowd and kill each other.

Aureomycin and B-12 Won't Replace Worm Control in Hogs

Recent experiments show that while pigs gain faster when fed growth-promoting antibiotics and vitamins, worms may still limit their growth.

G. R. Carlisle, extension livestock specialist at the Illinois college of agriculture, reports that a USDA test emphasizes the need for worm control even when aureomycin and vitamin B 12 are fed.

Eight 10-week old pigs were divided into two groups of four for the test. Each group had pigs from the same litters, and the weight of each group was about equal at the start.

The four pigs in one group got a regular ration, the other group was fed the regular ration plus 6 pounds of a crude mixture of vitamin B 12 and aureomycin for each ton of feed. Two of the pigs in each group were infested with worms two days after the pigs were divided. Pigs in both groups were weighed 169 days later.

On the regular ration plus aureomycin and vitamin B 12, the worm-free pigs gained 118 to 120 pounds on this diet. The worm-free pigs on the regular ration gained 98 and 154 pounds each, and those infested with worms gained only 70 and 84 pounds on the regular diet.

Some Silo Coatings Cut Silage Etchings

Styrene-based materials have given good protection from the etching of silage acids on concrete silos in two years of tests at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Some other silo coatings tested were found worse than useless and a complete waste of money and time, according to Keith H. Hinchcliff, extension farm structures specialist at the college.

YOU'LL BE LIKELY to have more etching from silage acids the second year after protective coating are applied than the first year, Hinchcliff says. For instance, losses of wall material were between three and five times as great the second year of the university tests as the first. One good coating may be effective for four or five years.

However, silo walls that were covered with effective coatings lost only about one-sixth as much material as uncoated areas. Some of the least effective coatings did not resist etching at all the second year.

STYRENE-BASED coatings showed up far better than asphalts and crude oil applications in the tests. However, a simple, inexpensive half-and-half mixture of linseed oil and turpentine ranked among the top third of the coatings in effectiveness.

Rubber-based paints were about half way between the better and poorer coatings tried.

Several new seals have been added to the tests this year in silos at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station. Results of those tests will be available next spring.

All sheep awards were captured by Marvin Straub, son of Wm. C. Straub of Hanover township. He is 19 years old and has been devoting several years to Southdowns, getting the grand champion and placed first in yearling ewe, aged ewe and ewe lamb. In the opinion of the judge, the other sheep entered were not worthy of blue ribbons.

List of all awards in poultry, rabbits and cattle with additional pictures, will appear on this page next week.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "He could not be dissuaded in his purpose." Say, "from his purpose."

Distinguish between "sanitary" and "sanatory." "Sanitary" means pertaining to health; as, "sanitary drinking cups." "Sanatory" means conducive to health, curative; as "sanatory exercises."

Do not say, "I can't seem to find the article." Say, "I can't find the article."

Do not say, "I shall settle the bill immediately." This is colloquial. Say, "I shall pay the bill," or, "I shall settle the account."

Do not say, "The three first days of the week." Say, "The first three days."

Do not say, "My plan is identical to yours." Say, "identical with yours." One plan may be similar to another, but not identical to it.

Words Often Mispronounced

Cognac. Pronounce as though spelled kone-yak, accent first syllable.

Chignon (hair style). Pronounce shen-yon, e as in sheen, o as in on, accent first syllable.

Forecast (noun and verb). Accent noun on first syllable, the verb on the second.

Carbine (rifle). Pronounce kar-bin, a as in car, i as in nine, accent first syllable.

Placate. Pronounce both a's as in ate, accent first syllable.

Deaf. Pronounce the ea as in dead, not as in leaf, sometimes heard.

Words Often Misspelled

Ballad (a song); ballet (dance); ballot (vote). Satire (irony); satyr (mythological divinity). Misdemeanor; observe the ea and the or. Funeral (noun); funereal (adjective). Either "eying" or "eyeing" is correct. Canape (appetizer); canopy (covering).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Effervesce; to bubble and hiss, as fermenting liquors. "The salts caused the liquid to effervesce in a few seconds."

Defilement; pollution; uncleanness; foulness. "The good cannot mix with the bad without danger of defilement."

Mimical; imitative. "Man is a mimical creature."

Elliptic; oblong with rounded ends. "The planets move in elliptic orbits."

Abortive; coming to naught; ineffectual; fruitless. "That was an abortive attempt."

Fervent; warm in feeling; earnest; zealous. "It was his fervent desire to promote happiness among his neighbors."

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it really proper for a well-bred man to smoke on the street?

A. Yes; but he removes his cigarette, cigar or pipe when he greets anyone, man or woman. If he stops to talk with a woman, he does not smoke while they are together. In fact, if he is smoking a cigarette, he throws it away as he approaches her. Neither does a man smoke while he is walking with a woman — unless he asks her permission.

Q. If the bride has a stepfather, should his name be included in the wedding invitations, or just her mother's name?

A. His name should be included, as, "Mr. and Mrs. James R. Gray request the honour of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Mary Alice Williams, etc."

Q. What is the correct manner of eating an orange at the table?

A. Peel the orange, and then pull it apart. At breakfast, the orange is often cut into halves and eaten with an orange spoon.

Q. Is the usually accepted "How do you do" the correct acknowledgment to the introduction when a friend brings a stranger to your home?

A. In this case, a somewhat more sincere and gracious acknowledgment is in order. To put your friend at ease, you should tell him you are happy he brought his friend. And to put your friend's friend at ease, you should say, in effect, "I'm pleased you could come."

Q. Is it all right to use a piece of bread to wipe up gravy or jelly from the plate?

A. At one time this was considered a grievous social error. But now it is all right. Be careful though not to go at it too heartily, so as to give the impression of mopping up a floor!

Q. In what way can a bride show appreciation to a group of friends who have given her a shower?

A. She may give them a luncheon, tea or card party in her new home as soon as possible after her marriage.

Q. If a boy and girl have been "going steady," and discontinue, should she return any gifts he has given her?

A. If he has given her gifts of value such as jewelry or perhaps a photograph of himself, these should be returned.

Q. Who sets the date of a wedding, the bride or the bridegroom?

A. After the couple have decided between themselves that circumstances are favorable for their marriage, it is up to the bride and her mother to decide the exact date.

Red Hair Might Help

Milton Berle Leads 'Hate Parade' on TV

Even without color television, your chances of success are apparently assured on TV if you've got red hair.

At least that's indicated by the latest survey of television habits among students, parents, and teachers conducted by Dr. Paul Witty of Northwestern university's school of education.

Witty's third annual study, conducted in four of Chicago's larger suburbs, shows top popularity ratings given to "I Love Lucy," which stars auburn-haired Lucille Ball, comic "Red" Skelton, and red-headed Arthur Godfrey.

THAT'S THE WAY it went with children of elementary and high school age who gave Miss Ball and Skelton as their first two preferences respectively, and among the parents who voted Godfrey into the number two spot behind Lucy, the study shows.

The teachers showed their individuality and refused to follow the crowd, however. They said they preferred the news commentators (most of whom are brunettes) and put Miss Ball into fifth place—right after Clifton Utley.

Dr. Witty says there may be an explanation for the teachers' deviation in that they report watching television an average of only ten hours a week, while parents said they viewed an average of 21 hours and elementary school pupils reported an average of 23 hours. Evanston high school pupils averaged 14 hours a week in 1952, as compared with 12 in 1951.

This was a slight dip in the number of hours that teachers watch television from the 12½ hour average reported last year, but it was close to the three-year average of 10½ hours.

BOTH PARENTS and children increased the number of hours this year from 1951's 19 hours of viewing to 21 and 23 respectively, exploding the theory that televiewing dropped after the novelty had worn off.

Noticeable in the most recent survey, conducted in Evanston, Skokie, Barrington and Calumet City in April and May, 1952, was the increase in the number of set owners. There are now video sets in 88 per cent of the homes of parents and children surveyed, the study showed. This compares with the 43 per cent of 1950, and the 68 per cent of 1951.

According to the survey, Milton Berle—"Mr. Television" himself—was listed among the top two most "disliked programs" by elementary pupils, high school pupils, and parents, as well as teachers.

Here's the way the lists shaped up, according to the report, in order of the first two "dislikes": elementary school pupils —Howdy Doody, Milton Berle; high school pupils—Milton Berle, cowboys and westerns; parents—murder mysteries, Milton Berle; teachers — Milton Berle, cowboys and westerns.

First Two Parties

The Federalists and the Republicans were the first two major political parties.

In the Future

A wax-type lubricating oil for cutting metals called "Wax-Cut," which reduces smoking, permits increased feeds and speeds and contributes to longer tool life, has been developed by Johnson's Wax. The lubricant has been put through exacting tests and, in addition to the aforementioned properties, it will not stain machine parts, enables the operator to observe his work through the clear fluid, lacks odor and will not turn rancid . . . A 12-ounce, pistol-shaped safety torch produces an acetylene flame when the trigger is squeezed and goes out the instant the trigger is released . . . A multi-purpose floor maintainer, which scrubs, waxes, polishes and steel wools floors, is available for stores, offices and small firms . . . Employees can be protected from nuisance dust by a low-cost, soft, porous, absorbent vegetable fiber mask now on the market. The mask can be sterilized in boiling water without damage.
